10. NO EXTRA CLAIMS

- 10.1 During the nominal term of this Agreement, the Parties will not pursue any further claims in relation to matters covered by the Agreement except as provided for by this Agreement.

PART B – DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

11. DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

- 11.1 This clause sets out the process for dealing with a dispute regarding:
- (a) any matters arising under this Agreement; or
 - (b) the NES.
- 11.2 A dispute settlement procedure may be initiated by:
- (a) an Employee;
 - (b) the Unions (either separately or together); or
 - (c) the University.
- 11.3 An Employee who is a party to a dispute may choose to be assisted or represented by a Representative, who may be an official of the Union, at any stage of the process set out in this clause.
- 11.4 With the exception of critical issues of work health and safety, normal work will continue while the process set out in this clause is being followed, and a party to a dispute will not take any action to aggravate a matter in dispute. If the dispute relates to the expiry of a fixed term contract, termination of the contract will be deferred pending resolution of the dispute.

Process

- 11.5 In the first instance, the parties to a dispute must attempt to resolve the matter informally through discussion between the Employee and their Supervisor, unless it is not practicable to do so.
- 11.6 If informal discussions are unsuccessful or impracticable, a party must formally notify a dispute to the head of their work unit. If there is a conflict of interest regarding the head of the relevant work unit, the party must notify the dispute to the Chief People Officer (or their nominee), who will then follow the process set out in this clause.
- 11.7 Subject to subclause 11.8, the formal dispute notification must:
- (a) be in writing;
 - (b) state that the notification is being made under this clause;
 - (c) specify the clause(s) of this Agreement, or NES, in relation to which the dispute has arisen; and
 - (d) insofar as is possible, clearly state the nature of the dispute.
- 11.8 An urgent dispute may be formally notified verbally provided that a formal dispute notification is issued in writing as soon as possible after the verbal notification.

- 11.9 A formal dispute meeting will be held between the Employee and the head of the work unit within 5 working days of the formal dispute notification, unless otherwise agreed.
- 11.10 At any stage during the process, a party may request an additional meeting with the other party to attempt to resolve the dispute and discuss any dispute resolution process they may wish to apply. Any such meeting must be held within 5 working days of the request being made, unless otherwise agreed. If the parties cannot agree on a dispute resolution process, the process in subclause 11.11 will apply.
- 11.11 Should the dispute not be resolved by the procedures referred to above, or if there is an identified urgent need to resolve the matter, either party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the FWC for conciliation and if necessary, arbitration. If the dispute is arbitrated by the FWC, the parties agree to be bound by a decision made by the FWC, subject to any right of appeal that may arise under the Act.
- 11.12 Nothing in this clause prevents the parties to a dispute from agreeing to refer the matter to a third party other than the FWC for resolution. If this occurs, the parties agree to be bound by the third party's recommendation to resolve the dispute.

PART C – EMPLOYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

12. TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT

Information for Employees

- 12.1 The University will provide an Employee with written confirmation of their employment category (including, where applicable, the category of fixed term employment), classification, duties, hours of work, location, Salary (or Casual Rate of Pay in the case of casual Employees), whether the position is ongoing, fixed term or casual, full-time or part-time, any probationary period that applies to the appointment, and the name and position of their Supervisor. The University will also advise a part-time Employee of the percentage of the full-time load to be worked, the Employee's days of work, and their start and finish times.
- 12.2 In addition, the University will inform a casual Employee of the number of hours required or anticipated (where known), the provisions relating to conversion to continuing or fixed term employment, and details regarding the accrual of long service leave in respect of casual service with the University.
- 12.3 The University will also advise an Employee where further information on their conditions of employment can be located.
- 12.4 The University will provide this information on appointment and when changes occur.

Payment of salaries

- 12.5 The University will pay an Employee their Salary, including any applicable allowances, loadings, and overtime payments, fortnightly by direct deposit into a recognised financial institution nominated by the Employee.
- 12.6 An Employee will also receive fortnightly statements of details of Salary payments including gross salary, tax and other deductions, superannuation, allowances, loadings, and overtime payments. The University may issue such statements electronically, provided that alternative arrangements will be made for Employees who cannot readily access electronic statements.

13. PROBATION

13.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.

13.2 The process prescribed by this clause will apply to Employees who commence employment with the University on or after the date of commencement of this Agreement. If an Employee is subject to a probationary period under clause 13 of the Western Sydney University Professional Staff Agreement 2017 at the date of commencement of this Agreement, that process will continue to apply.

Probationary period

13.3 The University may engage an ongoing or fixed term Employee subject to a 6-month probationary period. If a fixed term Employee is engaged for a term of less than 6 months, their probationary period will be equal to the duration of their appointment.

13.4 An Employee who has previously successfully completed a probationary period will not be placed on probation for any subsequent positions held at the University unless there is a break in service of more than 12 months.

Process

13.5 During the probationary period, the Supervisor will meet with the Employee at least once a month to provide feedback to either:

- (a) confirm the Employee's progress in accordance with the position description for their role; or
- (b) identify any concerns about the Employee's performance and develop an appropriate performance improvement plan for their resolution.

13.6 Where concerns are identified, the Employee will be given a reasonable opportunity to address them, including the provision of all reasonable training and support. The Supervisor must keep a written record of each meeting and provide a copy of this record to the Employee.

Extension of probationary period

13.7 The University may extend an Employee's initial probationary period for a further maximum period of up to 3 months if:

- (a) concerns about the Employee's performance are identified; or
- (b) the Employee has been absent from work for any reason to such an extent that it has not been possible to assess their performance during the initial probationary period.

13.8 At least 2 weeks before the end of the probationary period (including any extension), the Employee's Supervisor will conduct a final review and provide the Employee with a final report. The Supervisor may:

- (a) confirm the Employee's employment if the Employee has achieved the required performance standard; or
- (b) recommend termination of the Employee's employment if identified performance concerns have not been resolved.

Termination of employment

- 13.9 Subject to compliance with subclauses 13.5 and 13.6, a Supervisor may recommend termination of employment during the probationary period by providing a written report to the Chief People Officer setting out the reasons for the recommendation.
- 13.10 An Employee whose employment is recommended to be terminated will be given 5 working days to show cause as to why termination should not occur. The Employee will be provided with all documentation on which the Supervisor has relied in making the recommendation to terminate.
- 13.11 The Chief People Officer will review and take into consideration the Supervisor's recommendation and the Employee's show cause response and make a final recommendation to the nominated Employment Executive Member. The Employee will be advised of the Chief People Officer's recommendation to the Employment Executive Member in writing, together with reasons for the recommendation.
- 13.12 If the Employment Executive Member determines that the Employee's employment is to be terminated, the University will give the Employee 2 weeks' notice or payment in lieu. The notice of termination will be in writing and include all reasons for the decision.

Serious Misconduct or Research Misconduct during the probationary period

- 13.13 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the employment of a probationary Employee may be terminated at any time for Serious Misconduct or Research Misconduct, provided the Employee is given an opportunity to respond to any allegations before a decision to terminate is made.

No further appeal

- 13.14 Where a decision to take action has been made in accordance with this clause, no further appeal can be made within the University. Nothing in this clause will be construed as excluding the jurisdiction of any external court or tribunal which would be competent to deal with the matter.

14. CATEGORIES OF EMPLOYMENT

Ongoing employment

- 14.1 An ongoing Employee is an Employee engaged for an indefinite period of time. An ongoing Employee may be engaged on a full-time or part-time basis.
- 14.2 Ongoing employment may contain a reasonable probationary period provided that it is directly related to the work to be done, under conditions set out in clause 13: Probation.
- 14.3 Ongoing employment will normally cover the whole year. However, ongoing employment may be for specified sessions or seasons within the year (part-year). If an ongoing Employee is engaged part-year, the period(s) of the year in which they are not required to work:
- (a) will not break continuity of service; but
 - (b) will not count as service for leave accrual purposes.

Part-time employment

- 14.4 Part-time employment is ongoing or fixed term employment in which the ordinary hours of work are less than those of a full-time Employee.
- 14.5 A part-time Employee will be entitled to the provisions of this Agreement on a pro rata basis, unless otherwise specified.

- 14.6 An ongoing, full-time Employee may apply to work part-time to better balance personal and work commitments. If the application is approved, the University will provide the Employee with the following information in writing:

- (a) confirmation of the approval to work part-time;
- (b) the period of part-time work;
- (c) the classification applying to the work; and
- (d) any agreed arrangements for return to full-time work.

If the application is declined, the University will advise the Employee of the reasons in writing.

- 14.7 Part-time work arrangements may be varied by written agreement between an Employee and their Supervisor.

- 14.8 A fixed term Employee is an Employee engaged for a specified period of time or a specific task or project. A fixed term Employee may be engaged on a full-time or part-time basis.
- 14.9 Breaks between fixed term appointments of up to 2 times per year and of up to 6 weeks on each occasion will not constitute breaks in Continuous Service.
- 14.10 If at the end of a first or any subsequent fixed term contract the same, or substantially the same, position continues for a further fixed term, the incumbent Employee will be given further employment in the position on a fixed term basis, provided that:
- (a) the Employee was appointed to the position through an open and competitive selection process; and
 - (b) the Employee's performance in the position has been satisfactory.

(l)	disestablished organisational area	for positions within a disestablished organisational area under subclause 14.16.

14.12 Nothing within this subclause affects the validity or operation of any fixed term contract that was entered into before the commencement of this Agreement. However, such fixed term contracts may only be renewed after the commencement of this Agreement if they fall within one or more of the categories listed above.

Fixed term employment in new organisational area

14.13 New organisational area means:

14.14 Fixed term employment may be offered in a new organisational area about which there is genuine uncertainty of continuing operation for up to 3 years before or after the establishment of the area.

14.15 At the expiry of the fixed term, the University will offer conversion to ongoing employment in accordance with subclause 15.1, subject to:

14.17 If the decision to discontinue the work has been reversed, the University will offer conversion to ongoing employment in accordance with subclause 15.1 at the expiry of the fixed term, subject to:

- (a) the necessity of ongoing work; and
- (b) the Employee's satisfactory performance in the position.

Contract Research positions

14.18 If a fixed term Employee is engaged in a Contract Research position:

- (a) the Employee may be employed on subsequent research grants. A break between contracts of up to 6 months will not break continuity of service, but will not count as service for any purpose; and
- (b) the duration of the appointment will correspond with the term of funding available for that research task or position within the overall research grant, provided there is sufficient funding and suitable work available for the appointee under the grant.

Casual employment

14.19 A casual Employee is an Employee engaged by the hour and paid on an hourly basis.

14.20 An ongoing or fixed term Employee may also work as a casual Employee if the work is unrelated to, or identifiably separate from, their normal duties.

14.21 The minimum engagement period for a casual Employee is as follows:

- (a) for a casual Employee who is otherwise employed by the University on an ongoing or fixed term basis, or whose primary occupation is elsewhere: 1 hour;

Subject to subclause 39.7, if agreement cannot be reached, the Employee will be entitled to be unavailable to attend work for up to 2 days without pay per occasion.

14.23 If a casual Employee is unavailable for work because they have carer's responsibilities, they will not be disadvantaged in relation to the opportunity for future work at the end of the period of unavailability.

Apprenticeships and traineeships

14.24 The University may employ eligible persons under various State and Federal funded programs. The University will apply the provisions of such programs in supporting the establishment of opportunities for trainees.

14.25 The University may employ eligible persons under a Supported Wage Arrangement or under a Traineeship Agreement registered with the NSW Department of Education and Communities, and the provisions of the Commonwealth Government's Supported Wage System: Guidelines and Assessment will apply for the duration of this Agreement.

14.26 Employees who meet the impairment criteria for the Disability Support Pension and are eligible for a supported salary will be paid a percentage of the relevant rate for the work they are performing in accordance with the Special Supported Wage System (Employees with a Disability) Australian Pay and Classification Scale and the following prescribed rates:

Assessed capacity	% prescribed salary rate	Assessed capacity	% prescribed salary rate
10%	10%	50%	50%
20%	20%	60%	60%
30%	30%	70%	70%
40%	40%	80%	80%
		90%	90%

14.27 Trainees will be paid a proportionate amount relevant to the level of work required in accordance with Schedule 1, taking into account periods away from work due to training.

14.28 Apprentices engaged by the University will be paid in accordance with Schedule 2.

15. CONVERSION

Fixed term Employees

15.1 A fixed term Employee may make a written application to their Supervisor for conversion to ongoing employment if they meet all the following conditions:

- (a) the Employee's period of employment under fixed term contracts has exceeded 3 years of Continuous Service;
- (b) the current contract is the Employee's second or subsequent fixed term contract; and

- (c) the Employee was originally or subsequently appointed to the position through an open and competitive selection process.
- 15.2 A fixed term Employee who has applied for conversion under subclause 15.1 and meets the requirements prescribed by subclause 15.1(a) to (c) will be converted to ongoing employment unless:
 - (a) the Employee has not performed satisfactorily;
 - (b) the University no longer requires work of the same or similar nature to be performed within the Employee's work unit; or
 - (c) having regard to all the relevant circumstances, there would be insufficient work available for the Employee to be usefully employed on an ongoing basis.
- 15.3 The University will advise the Employee of the outcome of the application for conversion in writing and provide reasons if the application is declined.
- 15.4 Notwithstanding anything in subclause 15.1 the University may, at its discretion, convert any fixed term employment to ongoing employment.

Casual Employees

- 15.5 A casual Employee may be entitled to conversion in accordance with:
 - (a) the NES; or
 - (b) this clause.
- 15.6 Casual conversions under the NES may be at the initiative of either the Employee or the University.

Applications for casual conversion under this Agreement

- 15.7 A casual Employee may apply for conversion to ongoing or fixed term employment if they have been employed by the University on a regular and systematic basis in the same or substantially the same position in the same work unit either:
 - (a) over the immediately preceding 12 months, during which their average weekly hours worked equalled at least 50% of the ordinary weekly hours of an equivalent full-time Employee; or
 - (b) over the preceding 24 months.

Applications for casual conversion must be made using the Casual Conversion Application Form.

- 15.8 Occasional and short-term work performed by a casual Employee in another classification, job, or organisational unit will not:
 - (a) affect the Employee's eligibility for conversion; or
 - (b) be included in determining whether the Employee meets the eligibility requirements.
- 15.9 The University will inform a casual Employee about their right to apply for conversion at the time of appointment.
- 15.10 The University will advise the Employee of the outcome of the application for conversion within a reasonable period of time and provide reasons if the application is declined.

- 15.11 The University will not unreasonably decline an application for conversion, but may decline an application on the grounds that the casual Employee:
- (a) is a student or recent student, and this is relevant to their casual engagement;
 - (b) is a genuine retiree;
 - (c) is performing work that will either no longer be required, or will be performed by an ongoing or fixed term Employee, within 26 weeks of the date of the conversion application;
 - (d) is primarily employed or self-employed elsewhere;
 - (e) does not meet the essential requirement of the position; or
 - (f) is engaged in work which is ad hoc, intermittent, unpredictable, or involves hours that are irregular.
- 15.12 If a casual Employee's application for conversion is declined, the Employee cannot reapply for conversion within 12 months unless the application was declined under subclause 15.11(c) and that ground no longer applies.
- 15.13 An offer of conversion will indicate the hours and pattern of work as regular and continuous as is reasonably practicable, having regard to the University's operational requirements and the Employee's previous pattern of work.
- 15.14 Conversion from casual to ongoing or fixed term employment may be:
- (a) for the whole year;
 - (b) for part of the year, if by custom and practice the Employee has performed the work on this basis; or
 - (c) otherwise as agreed between the University and the Employee.

 - (b) the period of employment under fixed term Contract Research contracts has exceeded 3 years of Continuous Service; and
 - (c) the Employee has participated in the Planning and Career Development Program in the 12 months prior to the application being made.
- 15.16 A Contract Research Employee who has applied for conversion under subclause 15.15 and meets the requirements prescribed by subclauses 15.15(a) to (c) will be converted to ongoing employment unless:
- (a) one or more of the grounds prescribed by subclause 15.17 apply; or
 - (b) the head of the Employee's work unit is not, on reasonable and demonstrable grounds, satisfied that:

- (i) there is likely to be sufficient revenue or funding streams to support the Employee's employment; or
- (ii) the Employee has generic and transferable skills in addition to their research speciality, and those skills are subject to ongoing demand within the University.

15.17 The University may decline an application for conversion on grounds including, but not limited to:

- (a) the Employee is a student, and this was the primary reason for their appointment;
- (b) the Employee is a genuine retiree (including an Employee who elected to take up a pre- or post-retirement contract); or
- (c) the Employee's performance in the position has been unsatisfactory.

15.18 The University will advise the Employee of the outcome of the application for conversion in writing and provide reasons if the application is declined.

15.19 A Contract Research Employee will be entitled to the provisions of clause 60: Termination of Employment and clause 61: Fixed Term Employees Severance Pay.

15.20 If a fixed term Contract Research Employee's employment is converted to ongoing funding contingent employment, and:

- (a) the funding ceases for reasons outside the Employee's control; and
- (b) the University is not able find suitable alternative employment for the Employee;

the Employee's employment will cease and they will receive 4 weeks' notice (or pay in lieu) together with severance pay in accordance with clause 61: Fixed Term Employees Severance Pay.

 - (c) an Employee will have an average of at least 2 days off work per week;
 - (d) an Employee's ordinary hours of work per day will not normally be more than 8 hours, however this may be increased to up to 10 hours if, after consultation with affected Employees (or, if they choose, their Representative, who may be an official of the relevant Union), it can be demonstrated that the introduction of a roster of up to 10 hours per day will allow the University to more effectively meet the operational demands of a specific work area, or unforeseen and/or special work demands require an Employee be directed to work up to 10 hours on a particular day, provided that:
 - (i) this does not occur on more than 2 occasions in a 2-week period;

 - (c) prior written approval of the head of their work unit.

Hours worked under these arrangements will be paid at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay.

- 25.3 An ongoing or fixed term Employee may request reduced hours. Approval of such a request will be subject to operational requirements but will not be unreasonably withheld by the University.
- 25.4 A female Employee may vary their hours of work by arrangement with their Supervisor to accommodate breastfeeding requirements.
- 25.5 The time an Employee takes to travel between their home and their home campus is not included in their hours of work. However, where organisational needs require the Employee to travel to another campus or location, any time additional to the Employee's normal travel time will be included in their hours of work. Travel between campuses during the day is included in an Employee's hours of work.

Timesheets

- 25.6 All Employees up to and including HEW level 10 are required to complete a timesheet covering each 4-week (140 hours) settlement period.

Rates of pay

- 25.7 An ongoing or fixed term Employee will be paid at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay, and a casual Employee will be paid at the Casual Rate of Pay, for their ordinary hours of work. An Employee who is a Shiftworker will also be paid the relevant shift loading prescribed by subclause 25.11 in addition to their Base or Casual Rate of Pay.
- 25.8 A part-time Employee who works in excess of their ordinary hours of work will be paid their Base Rate of Pay where the excess hours are worked between 7.00am and 6.00pm. Excess hours worked outside 7.00am to 6.00pm will be subject to shift loadings in accordance with subclause 25.11 or overtime rates in accordance with subclause 25.19.
- 25.9 An Employee engaged part-year who agrees to work in their substantive position during a period when they would not normally work, will be paid at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay for any ordinary hours of work.
- 25.10 Subject to subclause 25.8, hours worked in addition to ordinary hours of work will be overtime.

Shift loadings

- 25.11 Subject to subclause 25.8, an Employee who works any of the following shifts will be paid the below shift loadings in addition to their Base Rate of Pay or Casual Rate of Pay:

	Shift	Time	Loading
(a)	early morning shift	starting at or after 4.00am and before 7.00am Monday to Friday	10%
(b)	day shift	starting not earlier than 7.00am and before 10.00am Monday to Friday	nil
(c)	early afternoon shift	finishing after 6.00pm Monday to Friday	10%
(d)	afternoon shift	finishing at or after 9.00pm and before midnight Monday to Friday	12.5%
(e)	night shift	finishing at or after midnight and before 7.00am Monday to Friday	15%
(f)	Saturday	any shift worked between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday	50%
(g)	Sunday	any shift worked between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday	100%
(h)	permanent night shift	any roster in which shifts are worked which do not rotate or alternate with other or another shift so as to give the employee at least one third of their working time off night shift in each roster period	30% (provided that the loading for Saturday or Sunday will be in substitution for, and not in addition to, this loading)

25.12 Work rosters will be posted in a readily accessible place at least 7 days in advance and will indicate the start and finish times of the ordinary hours of work for each shift for each Employee.

25.13 An Employee will be given at least 72 hours' notice of a change of shift in a roster, or at least 7 days' notice of a new roster, unless the Employee is replacing another Employee on unplanned absence, in which case the Employee will be notified of the change as soon as possible. If an Employee:

- (a) is not provided with the required period of notice (other than in circumstances arising from an unplanned absence), they will be paid 1.5 times their Base Rate of Pay; or
- (b) works on a day the Employee would have otherwise been rostered off because of a change of shift in a roster, they will be paid overtime for the time worked.

25.14 Employees may swap shifts or rosters with the agreement of their Supervisor(s) provided that this does not involve additional shift loadings or overtime.

Changes to regular roster or ordinary hours of work

25.15 The University will consult with Employees about changes to their regular roster or ordinary hours of work in accordance the relevant provisions of the Act. Employees may be assisted by a Representative for the purposes of such consultation. In consulting with Employees, the University will:

- (a) provide information to the Employees about the change;

- (b) invite Employees to give their views about the impact of the change, including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities; and
 - (c) consider any views about the impact of the change that are given by Employees.
- 25.16 Any change to an Employee's regular roster or ordinary hours of work will only be made with the agreement of the Employee concerned, taking into account personal circumstances and obligations under clause 54: Organisational Change.

Overtime

- 25.17 The University may require an Employee to work a reasonable amount of overtime unless the Employee has reasonable grounds for not doing so.
- 25.18 The University will make all reasonable efforts to give an Employee at least 48 hours' notice of any overtime to be worked.
- 25.19 Overtime rates of pay will be:
- (a) 1.5 times the Base Rate of Pay for the first 2 hours and double the Base Rate of Pay thereafter until the end of the overtime;
 - (b) between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday – 1.5 times the Base Rate of Pay for the first 2 hours and double the Base Rate of Pay thereafter until the end of the overtime, with a minimum payment of 3 hours;
 - (c) between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday – double the Base Rate of Pay with a minimum payment of 4 hours, except for essential work of feeding animals and watering, when the minimum payment will be 3 hours; and
 - (d) on a Public Holiday – 2.5 times the Base Rate of Pay with a minimum payment of 4 hours except for essential work of feeding animals and watering, when the minimum payment will be 3 hours.
- 25.20 Overtime should be arranged so that, if reasonably practicable, an Employee will have 10 hours off between work on successive days, except 8 hours will be substituted for 10 hours for overtime worked when changing shift rosters or replacing another Employee who has not reported for work. However, if an Employee who works overtime:
- (a) would ordinarily commence work within 10 hours of finishing the overtime, they will not be required to report for work until they have had 10 hours off and will be paid at the Base Rate of Pay for the time they would have normally worked in those ten hours; or
 - (b) is directed by the University to continue or resume work without having had 10 consecutive hours off, they will be paid at overtime rates of pay until released from duty and then have 10 consecutive hours off and will be paid at the Base Rate of Pay for the time they would have normally worked in those 10 hours.
- 25.21 An Employee who is called back to the University's premises for work after leaving for the day will be paid at the appropriate overtime rate for a minimum of 4 hours. Each call will stand alone. This subclause will not apply if:
- (a) it is customary for the Employee to return for pre-arranged overtime; or
 - (b) the overtime is continuous (subject to a reasonable meal break) with the end or start of the Employee's normal working time.

25.22 If an Employee is instructed to work overtime on a day they would normally not have been required to work and on reporting to work finds that no work is available, they will be paid 3 hours' overtime at the applicable overtime rate for that day.

25.23 Each day's overtime is calculated separately to the nearest quarter of an hour.

25.24 If an Employee is required to work overtime, they will be entitled to payment at the relevant overtime rate(s) specified in subclause 25.19. Overtime will be paid unless the Employee and their Supervisor agree that the Employee will instead accrue time off in lieu of overtime in accordance with subclauses 25.25 to 25.28.

Time off in lieu of overtime

25.25 Time off in lieu of overtime will not be unreasonably refused by the University but must be considered in conjunction with any use of flex leave.

25.26 Time off in lieu of overtime will be equal to the hours that would have been payable. For example, 4 hours of overtime worked at double time is equal to 8 hours of time off in lieu.

25.27 An Employee may accrue a maximum of 35 hours of time off in lieu of overtime.

25.28 Time off in lieu of overtime must be taken:

- (a) at a time mutually agreed between an Employee and their Supervisor; and
- (b) within 3 months from the time the overtime was worked, or payment at the appropriate overtime rate will be made.

26. STANDARD WORKING HOURS

26.1 Standard working hours are ordinary hours that are set and regular and include an unpaid meal break under clause 27: Meal Breaks.

26.2 Standard hours of work are equal to 7 hours per day or 35 hours per week, Monday to Friday (pro rata for part-time Employees) and apply to those Employees who elect not to participate in the Flexible Hours of Work Scheme under clause 35: Flexible Hours of Work Scheme.

27. MEAL BREAKS

27.1 An Employee will be allowed an unpaid meal break of between 30 minutes and 1 hour per meal unless as otherwise provided in clause 35: Flexible Hours of Work Scheme.

27.2 If the University requires an Employee to work any part of their meal break, the time worked will count as part of the Employee's ordinary hours of work.

27.3 An Employee will not be required to work more than 5 consecutive hours without an unpaid meal break of at least 30 minutes, however if the Employee works according to a roster they may, by agreement with their Supervisor, take a paid meal break provided they remain available for duty.

PART G – WORKLOADS AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

28. WORKLOADS

28.1 The University will ensure that workloads are realistic and achievable within an Employee's ordinary hours of work and does not encourage or condone a workplace culture that requires Employees to work excessive hours.

- 28.2 Reasonable overtime may occasionally be required to meet operational needs, and it is the responsibility of:
- (a) managers and Supervisors to ensure that they do not impose unreasonable expectations on Employees; and
 - (b) Employees to ensure that they are not working unreasonable overtime.
- 28.3 Workload allocation will take into account relevant work health and safety principles and the Employee's level of appointment, work fraction profile, and position description.
- 28.4 Employees will not be required to work unreasonable overtime.
- 28.5 The University does not expect or require an Employee to respond to communications outside their ordinary hours of work, or whilst they are on approved leave including Concessional Days.
- 28.6 The University will not make workload demands of Employees that are inconsistent with these provisions.

Increases to workloads

- 28.7 Potential increases to workloads will be considered as part of the risk assessment process prior to any organisational change, the introduction of new workflows and processes, or changes to technical systems and infrastructure.
- 28.8 Where an ongoing increase to workloads is identified as a result of:
- (a) proposed organisational change, the provisions of clause 54: Organisational Change will apply and the organisational change plan will identify the risk and outline any steps to mitigate the effect of increased workloads; or
 - (b) the introduction of new technology, infrastructure, workflows, or processes that do not amount to significant change as defined by clause 54: Organisational Change, the relevant project team or manager will consider the impact on workloads.

Workload allocation

- 28.9 Managers and Supervisors are responsible for ensuring that workloads are fairly and equitably allocated to teams or individuals in consultation with Employees.
- 28.10 Each work unit should meet in at least twice-yearly formal meetings chaired by the manager of the work area, in order to assess collegially and consultatively the work allocation and division of tasks within the group. These meetings will consider:
- (a) any pattern of excessive working hours within the work unit, including where no opportunities arise to utilise accrued flex leave or time off in lieu;
 - (b) the impacts on workloads following organisational change, including from the loss of Employee resources or the introduction of new programs;
 - (c) the distribution of workloads in a manner consistent with the classification level, training, skills, knowledge, and career and professional development of individual Employees; and
 - (d) any other relevant matters.

28.11 Individual workloads are to be discussed and negotiated during performance management reviews and monitored in accordance with subclauses 28.13 and 28.14.

28.12 Without disrupting the operation of their work unit, an Employee should be able to:

- (a) use their flex-time credits as set out in clause 35: Flexible Hours of Work Scheme; and
- (b) take their annual leave within the limits imposed by clause 36: Annual Leave.

Monitoring workload

28.13 Primary indicators of unreasonable workload include:

- (a) an ongoing need to work excessive hours;
- (b) unreasonable overtime; and
- (c) an inability for Employees to clear accrued leave or flex credits.

28.14 Managers and Supervisors have a responsibility to:

- (a) monitor and review workload for signs of overwork; and
- (b) monitor patterns of work and/or total hours worked over a given period of time, leave balances, accrued time in lieu, and flex balances.

If a Supervisor becomes aware that one or more of the primary indicators of unreasonable workload prescribed by subclause 28.13 apply to an Employee, they will meet with the Employee to discuss the Employee's workload and, if appropriate, implement strategies to address any excess workload issues.

28.15 The Implementation Committee will monitor overtime, leave balances, accrued time in lieu, and flex credit balances, and may be used as a forum to facilitate consultation on workloads.

Individual and/or work unit workload review

28.16 If an Employee or work unit is concerned about their workload, they may request a workload review through discussion with their Supervisor at any time. If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved through this process, the Employee or work unit may escalate the matter to the head of their work unit.

28.17 If the matter is not resolved through discussion with the head of the work unit, the Employee or work unit may further escalate the matter to the Chief People Officer (or their nominee).

28.18 The Chief People Officer (or their nominee) will review the matter and discuss it with the parties involved, before making a determination and communicating the outcome to the parties, including reasons for the decision.

28.19 If a person is required to deal with a matter under this clause on behalf of the University but a potential conflict of interest exists (whether identified by an Employee or otherwise), the University will nominate an alternate person to deal with the matter.

29. CAREER PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

29.1 The University will:

- (a) provide Employees with a range of centrally funded training and development opportunities through the Office of People, and externally delivered programs related to the University's work;
 - (b) increase the number of centrally funded professional development opportunities provided as at the date of commencement of this Agreement; and
 - (c) take reasonable steps to widely advertise all centrally funded professional development opportunities to Employees.
- 29.2 The University will undertake an annual review of University professional development programs offered and report on their uptake to the Implementation Committee. The University intends to spend no less than $4,600,000 per annum on professional development over the nominal term of this Agreement and will report expenditure to the Implementation Committee at least twice per calendar year.
- 29.3 The University is committed to providing all Employees with:
 - (a) the opportunity to be involved in the planning of their work, and to develop personal skills that complement their work unit's goals;
 - (b) the opportunity to access a personal career development plan that will lead to identifiable career opportunities; and
 - (c) equity of access to training and development opportunities.
- 29.4 The University will provide opportunities for career progression by:
 - (a) advertising all ongoing and fixed term vacancies on the University website. Vacancies for positions at HEW level 6 or below will be advertised internally in the first instance; and
 - (b) appointing Employees, other than casual Employees, to temporarily perform the duties of a higher classified position in accordance with clause 31: Higher Duties.
- 29.5 Career and development opportunities for an individual Employee should initially be identified in discussion with their Supervisor, and may include:
 - (a) on-the-job coaching;
 - (b) attendance at training courses, programs or conferences;
 - (c) networking and mentor relationships;
 - (d) temporarily performing duties of a higher classified position;
 - (e) job rotation, secondments, and employee exchange programs;
 - (f) research or project work;
 - (g) support for ongoing accredited education; and
 - (h) involvement in internal or external committees or University governance.
- 29.6 The University will make funding available to support agreed career development plans.

Annual Planning and Career Development Program

- 29.7 An Employee and their Supervisor will meet at least annually to discuss the planning goals and objectives of their work unit for the next 12 months and clarify how they relate to the Employee.
- 29.8 The Employee and their Supervisor will complete a standard planning and career development document setting out the Employee's agreed work plan and career development program. The Supervisor will:
- (a) provide the Employee with an opportunity to meet and discuss goals, identify work priorities, and clarify expectations;
 - (b) assist the Employee in identifying career skill development needs in their current position and career development opportunities;
 - (c) provide the Employee with guidance and constructive feedback;
 - (d) identify and support higher duties opportunities as career development; and
 - (e) implement, where possible, an agreed career development program.
- 29.9 If an Employee is reasonably of the opinion that they are not being given training or development opportunities, they should raise the matter with their Supervisor in the first instance. If the matter is not resolved, the Employee may then raise the matter with the Chief People Officer (or their nominee) for resolution.
- 29.10 The University will consult with Employees on the development of the standard planning and career development process.

Reimbursement of course fees

- 29.11 The University may reimburse an ongoing or fixed term Employee's course fees for study that is directly related to the Employee's current position or may reasonably be expected to be utilised within the University in the future.
- 29.12 If the University requires an Employee to undertake training, it will be regarded as part of the Employee's duties and count as time worked.

Study leave

- 29.13 An ongoing or fixed term Employee who is undertaking an approved course of formal study or training related to their work is entitled to:
- (a) up to 5 hours' paid leave per week; and
 - (b) additional paid leave to attend examinations.

This time may be accrued to a maximum of 35 hours in any semester.

- 29.14 Arrangements for taking leave are to be agreed between the Employee and their Supervisor.

Multiskilling

- 29.15 The University may direct an Employee to perform work and/or use equipment as may reasonably be required having regard to the Employee's existing skill base, provided that the Employee is properly trained and licensed, and the skill competency levels required fall within the Employee's classification level.

- 29.16 Any direction given by the University under this clause will be consistent with the University's responsibility to provide a healthy and safe working environment.

30. POSITION CLASSIFICATION

- 30.1 Every position will be classified in accordance with the Position Descriptors set out in Schedule 4.
- 30.2 Positions will be classified at the level that most accurately reflects the work to be performed, taking into account the duties, responsibilities, and accountabilities of the position.
- 30.3 The following general principles apply to classification decisions:
- (a) all positions are subject to these procedures, irrespective of funding source or availability;
 - (b) the classification will be of the position not the occupant;
 - (c) classification decisions will be based on an assessment of the documentation of positions against the Position Descriptors, however the University may also choose to utilise a supplementary job evaluation methodology to undertake classifications;
 - (d) the Position Descriptors will be applied consistently across positions; and
 - (e) special regard will be given to pay equity principles.
- 30.4 A position will not ordinarily be reclassified within 12 months of its last reclassification review unless a significant restructure of the work unit has taken place.

Classification methodology

- 30.5 Every position at HEW levels 1 to 10 will have a position description developed within the context of the work unit.
- 30.6 A position description will clearly and comprehensively describe the specific purpose, key functions, core duties and activities, and the various skills required of the position as set out in the Position Descriptors. Generic position descriptions are to be avoided where possible.
- 30.7 An Employee will undertake the responsibilities outlined in the position description applicable to their position. An Employee will not be required to undertake duties that are not in their position description on an ongoing basis unless the Employee and their Supervisor have agreed that an application for reclassification will be made. Any such application should be discussed immediately with the Office of People and lodged as soon as practicable. If the application is successful, the Employee will be back paid to the date the application was lodged with the Office of People.
- 30.8 If a position is one of a group of like positions across an organisational area, any changes to that position description will be considered within the context of the whole area. This will not, however, prevent the position from being considered for classification as a separate position.
- 30.9 Classification will be undertaken by persons from the Office of People who are trained in formal classification processes and nominated by the Chief People Officer (or their nominee).

Reclassification of existing positions

- 30.10 The University will reclassify positions using the classification methodology outlined in this clause. Personal or gender identifying information about the position holder will not be used in assessing a position for reclassification.

- 30.11 If there is a significant change identified for a vacant position, a revised position description will be created. Any change to a vacant position will be considered within the context of its effect on related positions.
- 30.12 An Employee or their Supervisor may at any time initiate discussions regarding the currency of the Employee's position description and classification level.
- 30.13 A reclassification submission can be made by:
- (a) the Employee;
 - (b) the Employee's Supervisor; or
 - (c) the relevant Union.
- 30.14 A submission should ordinarily be made as soon as practicable after it has been identified that there has been a material change to the Employee's duties so that an Employee is not undertaking additional work for an indefinite period.
- 30.15 If the Employee believes their existing position description is incorrectly classified and the Supervisor confirms that the position description is accurate, the position description will be submitted to the unit manager for their endorsement to forward the position description to Office of People for reclassification. A request for reclassification must include the following information:
- (a) when the Employee's duties changed;
 - (b) reasons justifying the change in the Employee's duties;
 - (c) how the changed duties align with the requirements of the relevant work unit;
 - (d) how duties are being undertaken if they have been removed from the existing position description; and
 - (e) reasons justifying any delay in applying for reclassification.
- 30.16 If there is no agreement between an Employee, their Supervisor, and the unit manager with appropriate University delegation regarding the currency of the Employee's position description, the Employee may make a reclassification submission directly to the head of the Employee's work unit. If the head of unit supports the submission, it will be forwarded to the Office of People for reclassification.
- 30.17 If the head of the Employee's work unit does not support the reclassification submission, they will advise the Office of People of the reasons for their decision, provided that a submission can only be declined on the following grounds:
- (a) the submission does not accurately describe the work being done; and/or
 - (b) the work is not required to be done.

The Office of People will advise the Employee of the reasons in writing, and the Employee will continue to perform work in accordance with their position description.

- 30.18 The Office of People will deal with a reclassification submission equitably, confidentially, and where possible, within 4 weeks of receipt. If there is a delay beyond 4 weeks, the Office of People will advise the Employee of the circumstances and provide an estimated time for an outcome.
- 30.19 A reclassification submission will result in a position either being reclassified to a higher level or remaining at the same level, and the incumbent will retain the position.

30.20 If an occupied position is reclassified to a higher level, the new Salary will be paid from the date the submission was lodged with the head of the Employee's work unit, or from an agreed earlier date. If the higher-level work is specified and agreed to commence at a future date, the new Salary will be paid from that future date.

30.21 An Employee will be advised of the outcome of their submission in writing by the Office of People and will be given reasons if the submission is declined.

Review

30.22 Each Union will nominate up to 2 members to be trained in the classification methodology utilised by the University. These members will form a part of a Classification Review Panel.

30.23 If an Employee disputes the outcome of their reclassification submission, they may apply in writing to the Chief People Officer (or their nominee) for a review of the decision.

30.24 The Chief People Officer (or their nominee) may:

- (a) reclassify the Employee's position; or
- (b) refer the Employee's submission for review to a Classification Review Panel to independently evaluate the position description.

30.25 The Classification Review Panel will comprise:

- (a) 1 Union Employee, trained in the appropriate job classification methodology, and nominated by the Implementation Committee; and
- (b) 1 Employee from the Office of People trained in the appropriate job classification methodology, and who was not on the original evaluation committee.

30.26 If the Classification Review Panel is required to conduct a review under subclause 30.24(b), the Panel may request relevant information about the position from:

- (a) the University;
- (b) the Employee making the submission; and/or
- (c) the Employee's Supervisor;

prior to completing its review.

30.27 The Chief People Officer (or their nominee) will determine the appropriate classification of the position in accordance with the outcome of the Panel review.

30.28 An Employee will be advised of the result of their reclassification submission in writing within 4 weeks of the submission being made to the Chief People Officer (or their nominee).

30.29 If an Employee who is required to perform additional or changed duties makes a reclassification submission based on the position description being inaccurate and the submission is declined at any stage of the process outlined in this clause, the Employee will not be required to perform additional or changed duties.

30.30 Where a submission under subclause 30.13 results in the reclassification of the Employee's position, then unless otherwise agreed by the University in light of any reasons given justifying delay under subclause 30.15(e), the reclassification and any consequential change in rate of pay will be effective from the date on which the submission was made to the Office of People.

31. HIGHER DUTIES

- 31.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.
- 31.2 Higher duties are a temporary measure that can be used to cover Employees who are on leave or otherwise absent from duties, or while recruitment action is taking place, and provide a career development opportunity for Employees in accordance with clause 29: Career Planning and Development. The University will use temporary appointments to perform the duties of higher classified positions as opportunities for Employee development.
- 31.3 An Employee who is temporarily appointed to, and satisfactorily performs, the duties of a higher classified position (Relieving Position) for:
- (a) at least 5 consecutive working days; or
 - (b) at least 5 separate days within a 2-month period, when the basis of the appointment does not involve consecutive working days but is regular (for example 1 day per week each week);
- is a Relieving Employee and will be paid a Higher Duties Allowance for the time they perform the duties of the Relieving Position (Relief Period).
- 31.4 A Higher Duties Allowance is the difference between the Relieving Employee's salary and the minimum salary of the Relieving Position.
- 31.5 A pro rata Higher Duties Allowance will be paid if the Relieving Employee performs only a proportion of the duties associated with the Relieving Position. The Unit Manager will determine the proportion of the duties performed after consultation with the Relieving Employee.
- 31.6 Prior to the commencement of the Relief Period, a Relieving Employee will be advised of:
- (a) the extent of the duties to be performed;
 - (b) the rate of the Higher Duties Allowance to be paid; and
 - (c) the expected duration of the Relief Period.
- 31.7 For appointments to higher duties for more than 20 working days, the Higher Duties Allowance will be paid for any leave taken during the Relief Period, provided that the allowance would have been paid but for the taking of the leave. Such leave will count as service for incremental purposes.
- 31.8 For appointments to higher duties for 20 working days or less, the Higher Duties Allowance will not be paid for any leave taken during the Relief Period.
- 31.9 A Higher Duties Allowance will be varied during the Relief Period to take into account any changes in:
- (a) Salary for the Relieving Position; and
 - (b) the proportion of duties associated with the Relieving Position.
- 31.10 Where practicable, the opportunity to perform higher duties should ordinarily be made available to Employees within the work unit where the vacancy exists. In making higher duties opportunities available to interested and suitably qualified Employees, the Supervisor will have regard to whether the Employee(s) concerned have previously had a chance to perform the duties of higher classified positions to ensure equity of access to career development opportunities.

- 31.11 Expressions of interest will be used as the basis for filling vacancies of more than 2 weeks' duration where the University has at least 3 weeks' notice of the vacancy.
- 31.12 Higher duties should not normally be offered for more than a 3-month period. If the University expects a position to be vacant for longer than 3 months or an indefinite period, it will be internally advertised in the first instance and filled through competitive selection.
- 31.13 If a Relieving Employee has performed the same Relieving Position for 1 year or more:
- (a) they will be eligible for incremental progression in the position;
 - (b) the Higher Duties Allowance will be paid for any leave taken during the further period of relief; and
 - (c) the Higher Duties Allowance will be superannuable unless the Employee expressly declines this benefit.
- 31.14 If a Relief Period extends beyond the original time envisaged, the Relieving Employee's Supervisor will either:
- (a) have the Relieving Position reviewed by the Office of People; or
 - (b) commence recruitment action for the Relieving Position; or
 - (c) provide the Office of People and the Relieving Employee with reasons for continuing the higher duties; and
 - (d) advise the Relieving Employee of any revised end date for the Relief Period.
- 31.15 If a Relieving Employee is permanently appointed to the Relieving Position through a competitive recruitment process, they will be treated as having been the permanent occupant of that position during the entire period of higher duties for the purposes of incremental progression.
- 31.16 If a Relieving Employee is permanently appointed to a different position at the same or higher level as the Relieving Position, then periods of time in the Relieving Position may be aggregated and taken into account for the purpose of incremental progression within that classification level.

PART H – FLEXIBLE WORK PROVISIONS

- 33.5 A request for flexible working arrangements must be made in writing to an Employee's Supervisor setting out the details of the change sought and the reasons for the change.
- 33.6 The Supervisor may decline a request for flexible working arrangements only on reasonable business grounds which include, but are not limited to:
- (a) the requested working arrangements would be too costly for the University;
 - (b) there is no capacity to change the working arrangements of other Employees to accommodate the requested working arrangements;
 - (c) the requested working arrangements would be likely to result in significant loss of efficiency or productivity; or
 - (d) the requested working arrangements would be likely to have a significant negative impact on services.
- 33.7 The Supervisor will genuinely consider a request for flexible working arrangements. Before responding to a request, the Supervisor must discuss the request with the Employee and genuinely try to reach agreement on a change in working arrangements that will reasonably accommodate the Employee's circumstances having regard to:
- (a) the Employee's needs arising from their circumstances;
 - (b) the consequences for the Employee if the requested changes are not made; and

- 33.12 If the Supervisor declines an application for flexible working arrangements, the Employee may make a further application:
- (a) if the Employee's circumstances change; or
 - (b) after 6 months have elapsed following the initial request being made.
- 33.13 Information regarding the right to request flexible working arrangements will be made available on the University's website.

34. REMOTE WORKING ARRANGEMENTS

- 34.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.
- 34.2 A remote working arrangement is an arrangement that allows an Employee to work at a location other than a University campus or premises.
- 34.3 An ongoing or fixed term Employee and their Supervisor may agree to a regular remote working arrangement.
- 34.4 For the avoidance of doubt, all provisions of this Agreement continue to apply to an Employees with an approved remote working arrangement, including provisions relating to hours of work, and career progression.

Applying for a remote working arrangement

- 34.5 Subject to subclause 34.7, the University will make remote working arrangements available to all Employees.
- 34.6 A full-time Employee may apply to work remotely for up to 2 days per week or more in exceptional circumstances. A part-time Employee's entitlement to work remotely will be calculated on a pro rata basis.
- 34.7 An Employee who wishes to apply for a remote working arrangement must make a written application to their Supervisor setting out:
- (a) the nature of the proposed arrangement; and
 - (b) the proposed duration of the arrangement.
- 34.8 A Supervisor must advise the Employee of the outcome of a request for a remote working arrangement in writing within 10 working days and provide reasons if the request is declined. A Supervisor can only decline the request if it is unreasonable and cannot be accommodated because, having regard to the factors specified in subclause 34.9, it would unduly disrupt the work of the unit.
- 34.9 In determining a request for a remote working arrangement, a Supervisor will consider:
- (a) appropriate and effective communication with office-based Employees;
 - (b) the need to ensure adequate interaction with colleagues;

- (c) the nature of the Employee's role and the operational requirements of the work unit including hours of work, scheduling of work, and the possibility of rotation of remote working arrangements within teams;
- (d) privacy and security; and
- (e) health and safety.

34.10 A Supervisor will use their best endeavours to accommodate any reasonable request by an Employee to work remotely on a regular basis. Remote working arrangements will be reviewed every 6 months or at the request of an Employee and amended if required.

Remote work settings

34.11 Where a remote working arrangement has been approved, the University will take reasonable steps to ensure the Employee's remote work setting meets University standards, including work health and safety requirements.

Terminating a remote working arrangement

34.12 An Employee may terminate a remote working arrangement at any time by providing their Supervisor with at least 10 working days' notice in writing.

34.13 A Supervisor may terminate or temporarily adjust a remote working arrangement following consultation with the Employee if:

- (a) the arrangement becomes impractical having regard to the changed requirements of the Employee's role and/or work unit; or
- (b) the Supervisor reasonably considers the arrangement is adversely impacting the Employee's work output.
- (c) Any termination of a remote working arrangement will take effect no sooner than 10 days from the date of termination.

34.14 An Employee whose remote working arrangement has been terminated under subclause 34.13 without their agreement may apply to the Chief People Officer (or their nominee) for a review of the decision. In reviewing the decision, the Chief People Officer (or their nominee) will consider:

- (a) the factors referred to in subclause 34.13; and
- (b) the Employee's individual circumstances with regard to family and/or other carer's responsibilities.

34.15 If an Employee with a remote working arrangement is appointed to a different position within the University, their existing arrangement will cease and the Employee will be entitled to apply for a remote working arrangement in their new position in accordance with this clause.

Further applications

34.16 In addition to any other rights in prescribed by this Agreement, an Employee whose application for a remote working arrangement is declined or terminated may make a further application for such an arrangement where circumstances have changed in relation to the matters referred to in subclause 34.9.

35. FLEXIBLE HOURS OF WORK SCHEME

35.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.

General

- 35.2 This clause should be read in conjunction with clause 25: Hours of Work.
- 35.3 The Flexible Hours of Work Scheme (Scheme) will be made available to all Employees unless a Supervisor can demonstrate that an Employee's participation in the Scheme is impractical for performance of the Employee's core duties. Supervisors and Employees will seek to balance operational and individual needs in determining individual working arrangements.
- 35.4 If an Employee elects to work a standard 35-hour week rather than participate in the Scheme, any subsequent request to join the Scheme will be subject to approval by the Employee's Supervisor.
- 35.5 An Employee whose usual start and finish times are outside bandwidth and core hours will not be disadvantaged by the Scheme.
- 35.6 If an Employee is unable to work successfully within the Scheme, their Supervisor will discuss the issue with the Employee to resolve the matter.

Settlement periods

- 35.7 The Scheme is based on 4-week (140-hour) settlement periods commencing on the Friday following every second payday.

Timesheets

- 35.8 All Employees participating in the Scheme must complete a timesheet covering each settlement period.
- 35.9 Other than in exceptional circumstances, time must be recorded on the day it is worked.

Bandwidth

- 35.10 The bandwidth for hours of work is 7:00am to 6:00pm, Monday to Friday.
- 35.11 Time may be accrued during bandwidth hours.
- 35.12 An Employee who is participating in the Scheme may vary their daily start and finish times within the bandwidth subject to:
- (a) the operational requirements of the Employee's work unit; and
 - (b) their Supervisor's approval, which will not be unreasonably withheld.
- 35.13 Regular work outside the bandwidth must be agreed by an Employee's Supervisor and approved by the head of the Employee's work unit. Any such approvals must be notified to the Chief People Officer (or their nominee).

Core hours

- 35.14 Core hours of work are 9.30am to 3.30pm. An Employee must account for any absences from work during core hours by approved leave, including flex leave.
- 35.15 Regular work outside core hours must be agreed by an Employee's Supervisor and approved by the head of the Employee's work unit. Any such approvals must be notified to the Chief People Officer (or their nominee).
- 35.16 If, due to exceptional circumstances (for example, urgent carer's responsibilities), an Employee is unable to start or finish work within core hours, they should notify their Supervisor as soon as possible, and any lost time will be debited against the Employee's time credit or debit, or accrued leave entitlements.

Meal break

- 35.17 An Employee must take a meal break of between 30 minutes and 2 hours' duration between 11.30am and 2.30pm, with timing subject to the operational requirements of their work unit. Alternatively, an Employee may elect to take a standard 1-hour meal break.
- 35.18 An Employee must not work more than 5 hours without a meal break.
- 35.19 Substantial extension of an Employee's meal break is subject to the approval of their Supervisor.

Time credit

- 35.20 An Employee may accrue time credit for working more than 7 hours per day, subject to the following:
- (a) gainful work is available;
 - (b) there is an operational requirement for the additional time to be worked;
 - (c) the additional time is approved by the Employee's Supervisor, with approval not to be unreasonably withheld;
 - (d) time credit will not accrue if overtime is paid for the excess time worked; and
 - (e) time credit is accrued on an hourly basis and not at overtime rates.
- 35.21 At the end of a settlement period:
- (a) a maximum of 14 hours' time credit may be carried forward to the next settlement period; and
 - (b) time credit of more than 14 hours will be forfeited unless the Employee has been directed not to take flex-leave due to operational requirements, in which case the excess credit may be carried forward to the next settlement period.
- 35.22 In exceptional circumstances (for example, during a peak work period) and with the approval of the head of the Employee's work unit, an Employee may be directed not to take their accrued flex-leave in a particular settlement period. If this occurs, the Employee:
- (a) may carry up to 2 days' leave forward to the next settlement period; and
 - (b) will agree on a strategy with their Supervisor to reduce their accrued time credit.

Any carry forward under subparagraph (a) is separate to the maximum permitted carry forward referred to in subclause 35.21(a).

Time debit

- 35.23 Any time less than 140 hours worked in a settlement period is a time debit.
- 35.24 At the end of a settlement period, a time debit of less than 14 hours will be carried forward to the next settlement period. If an Employee has a time debit of more than 14 hours at the end of a settlement period, the Employee may apply for annual leave to cover the debit. If the Employee does not apply for annual leave, the debit will be converted to leave without pay.

Flex leave

35.25 Flex leave is the taking of accrued time credits by agreement between an Employee and their Supervisor.

35.26 Supervisors must ensure that Employees are able to take their flex leave.

35.27 Subject to subclause 35.29, in normal circumstances (meaning during the day to day working of the University), an Employee may take up to 14 hours (2 days) of flex leave per settlement period.

35.28 If an Employee has been directed not to take flex leave due to organisational needs (such as during peak work periods), the untaken leave will be banked to be taken in the next settlement period or the settlement period(s) subsequent to that, subject to the provisions of subclause 35.29(j).

35.29 The following provisions must be adhered to in relation to flex leave:

- (a) to allow for planning and organisational management, an Employee must obtain their Supervisor's advance approval to take flex leave;
- (b) requests for flex leave will not be unreasonably refused;
- (c) flex leave is to be taken on an hour-for-hour basis, and does not accrue at overtime rates;
- (d) the operational requirements of the Employee's work unit must be taken into account when planning flex leave, and an Employee must discuss leave proposals with their Supervisor;
- (e) an Employee may take flex leave on consecutive days, but more than 2 consecutive days of flex leave can only be taken with the approval of their Supervisor;
- (f) an Employee cannot expect to always take flex leave on a Friday or Monday. In the interest of ensuring the continued effective operation of the work unit, other days of the week may be agreed;
- (g) it is not necessary for an Employee to have a credit balance when taking flex leave;
- (h) an Employee may take flex leave for a full or half day (based on a 7-hour day), however when taking half a day of leave, an Employee must work at least 3½ hours within bandwidth either before or after the leave;
- (i) an Employee may take half a day of flex leave in conjunction with other forms of accrued leave to cover a full day's absence; and
- (j) a Supervisor must give an Employee reasonable notice when requesting that flex leave not be taken due to operational requirements. In such circumstances, a maximum of 14 hours' leave will be carried forward and taken in the next settlement period unless prevented by exceptional operational requirements, in which case:
 - (i) the head of the Employee's work unit must make a case to the Chief People Officer (or their nominee) for the Employee to carry the leave forward to the subsequent settlement period; and
 - (ii) if, due to continued operational requirements, the Employee is still unable to take the leave during the subsequent settlement period, the leave will be paid out at ordinary time to the Employee unless alternative arrangements have been made for the Employee to continue to carry the leave forward.

- 35.30 If an Employee gives notice of resignation or retirement, they must clear all accrued flex leave in consultation with their Supervisor. If the leave cannot be cleared due to operational requirements, it will be paid out to the Employee at ordinary time. Any time debit will be deducted from the Employee's accrued annual leave.

Overtime

- 35.31 Time worked to accrue flex credits or clear time debits will not attract overtime payments.
- 35.32 Overtime is not generally applicable for time worked during bandwidth hours unless the University requires an Employee to work over and above their agreed individual working arrangements. Any such requirement must be approved by the head of the Employee's work unit (or their delegate).

Time off in lieu of overtime

- 35.33 Time off in lieu of overtime only applies if the University grants an Employee time off at overtime rates in lieu of an overtime payment. It does not apply to excess accrued time credit.

Approved leave and Public Holidays

- 35.34 Standard daily hours (that is, 7 hours) are credited for each day of approved paid leave or Public Holidays.
- 35.35 An Employee may only claim time credits for a Public Holiday if it falls on a day that is within the Employee's normal work pattern. An Employee's work pattern must not be varied to enable the Employee to gain time credit for Public Holidays.

Changed arrangements

- 35.36 Where there are changed organisational and operational requirements for the area of work that may affect the hours worked by affected Employees, clause 54: Organisational Change will be followed. The University will consider, amongst other things, Employees' family, carer's, and disability needs, and will include these considerations within its decision making.

Shift work

- 35.37 Employees who work under set 5- or 7-day rosters receive the appropriate shift allowances and may accrue time credit in accordance with the shift roster.
- 35.38 For those Employees who are required to work designated shifts from time to time, any additional hours accrued on shift days for the purpose of flex leave will not attract a shift penalty.

Monitoring of the Scheme

- 35.39 The Implementation Committee will monitor the operation of the Scheme.

PART I – LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

36. ANNUAL LEAVE

- 36.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.

Entitlement

- 36.2 A full-time Employee is entitled to 20 days of annual leave at their Base Rate of Pay per year of service.

- 36.3 A full-time Employee who is a Shiftworker is entitled to an additional 5 days of annual leave at their Base Rate of Pay per year of service.
- 36.4 Annual leave accrues on a daily basis.
- 36.5 Part-time Employees accrue annual leave on a pro-rata basis.
- 36.6 Annual leave accrues at half the ordinary rate whilst an Employee is on any form of leave on half pay.
- 36.7 Annual leave is in addition to any Public Holiday(s) occurring during the period of leave.
- 36.8 If an Employee who is eligible for sick leave produces a satisfactory medical certificate that they were ill or injured whilst on annual leave, the University will:
- (a) re-credit the Employee with an equivalent period of annual leave; and
 - (b) deduct an equivalent period of sick leave.
- 36.9 If an Employee has accrued annual leave but their employment ends before they take the leave, they will receive payment in lieu based on their Salary at end of their employment, subject to the provisions of clause 31: Higher Duties.
- 36.10 If an Employee dies, payment in lieu of the Employee's accrued annual leave entitlement will be made to Employee's personal legal representative, unless paid to the Employee's estate.

Taking annual leave

- 36.11 Annual leave will be taken at times agreed between an Employee and their Supervisor. Supervisors have a responsibility to facilitate leave planning and the ability for Employees to take annual leave.
- 36.12 During each calendar year, a full-time Employee must take at least 15 days of annual leave unless the Employee does not have sufficient leave accrued. The University may defer this requirement on a case-by-case basis provided the Employee takes 30 days of annual leave within 2 years. This requirement is applied on a pro rata basis for part-time Employees.

Direction to take annual leave

- 36.13 If a full-time Employee has accrued more than 40 days of annual leave (or 50 days of annual leave in the case of a Shiftworker):
- (a) the Employee and their Supervisor will, in the first instance, genuinely try to reach agreement about how to reduce or eliminate the excessive leave accrual; and
 - (b) if agreement cannot be reached (including because the Employee refuses to confer with their Supervisor), the University may direct the Employee in writing to take annual leave, subject to the provisions of subclause 36.14.

This requirement is applied on a pro rata basis for part-time Employees.

- 36.14 A direction to take annual leave must not:
- (a) result in the Employee's remaining accrued annual leave balance being less than 30 days when any other paid annual leave arrangements are taken into account;
 - (b) require the Employee to take any period of annual leave of less than 5 days;

- (c) require the Employee to take annual leave less than 8 weeks, or more than 12 months, after the direction is given; and
- (d) be inconsistent with any other agreed leave arrangement agreed between the Employee and their Supervisor.

36.15 If an Employee has been directed to take annual leave under subclause 36.13(b), the Employee's Supervisor will not unreasonably refuse the Employee's application for annual leave on alternative dates, provided these alternative dates are within an 8-week period either side of the dates directed.

36.16 An Employee who has given written notice of their intended date of retirement will not be directed to take annual leave within 12 months of that date.

37. CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR SHUTDOWN

37.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.

37.2 The University may shut down over the Christmas and New Year period. If this occurs, the University:

- (a) will grant 2 Concessional Days to Employees during the shutdown period;
- (b) will allocate 1 day in lieu of the Bank Holiday in accordance with clause 52: Public Holidays; and
- (c) may direct Employees to take up to 4 days of annual leave on working days that fall during the shutdown, other than days that are Public Holidays and/or Concessional Days.

37.3 An Employee may elect to take accrued flex leave, long service leave, or leave without pay instead of annual leave during the shutdown.

37.4 In exceptional circumstances, an Employee who has exhausted their leave entitlements may make an application to the Chief People Officer (or their nominee) for leave in advance to cover mandated leave dates. An application will not be unreasonably refused.

37.5 An Employee who is directed to work on a Concessional Day(s) will be entitled to take the day(s) at another time by agreement with their Supervisor.

38. LONG SERVICE LEAVE

38.1 Casual Employees are entitled to long service leave in accordance with the Long Service Leave Act 1955 (NSW) as amended or replaced from time to time.

38.2 For the purposes of this clause and subject to subclause 38.10 continuous service is service with the University without a break of more than 8 weeks on any one occasion.

Entitlement

38.3 Upon completion of 10 years of continuous service, a full-time Employee is entitled to 3 months' long service leave at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay. Thereafter, a full-time Employee will continue to accrue long service leave as follows:

- (a) for continuous service of between 10 and 15 years' duration: leave will accrue on a pro rata basis at the rate of 1.5 months' leave per 5 years of continuous service; and

- (b) for continuous service of more than 15 years' duration: leave will accrue on a pro rata basis at the rate of 2.5 months' leave per 5 years of continuous service.
- 38.4 Part-time Employees and Employees with a combination of full-time and part-time service accrue long service leave on a pro rata basis.
- 38.5 An Employee may elect to take long service leave at half pay.

 - (a) the University for any reason other than for Serious Misconduct;
 - (b) the Employee on account of illness, incapacity, or domestic or other pressing necessity;
 - (c) the Employee's death; or

- 38.7 If an Employee has accrued long service leave but their employment ends before they take the leave, they will receive payment in lieu based on their Salary at the end of their employment.
- 38.8 If an Employee dies, payment in lieu of the Employee's accrued long service leave entitlement will be made to Employee's personal legal representative, unless paid to the Employee's estate.

Recognition of prior long service leave credits

- 38.9 The University will recognise long service leave accruals for prior service with other Australian higher education institutions that recognise transferability of long service leave credits, and any University entity in which the University has more than a 50% controlled interest, provided that:
 - (a) the period between cessation of employment with the former employer and commencement of employment with the University is 8 weeks or less, however this period will not count towards length of service;
 - (b) if the Employee has taken long service leave with their former employer, they will not be entitled to long service leave for the period of service for which leave has been taken, however this period of service will be included as qualifying service for determining eligibility for long service leave and the rate of accrual;
 - (c) if the Employee has been paid, or is eligible to be paid, in lieu of long service leave by their former employer, they will not be entitled to long service leave for the period of service for which leave has been paid or is eligible to be paid, however this period of service will be included as qualifying service for determining eligibility for long service leave and the rate of accrual; and
 - (d) an Employee will be required to serve at least 5 years with the University before taking or being paid in lieu of long service leave, except that payment in lieu will be made if an Employee dies, retires, receives an ill health benefit under the provisions of their superannuation fund, accepts redundancy, or is retrenched.

Recognition of prior casual service

38.10 For the purposes of this clause, the University will recognise an ongoing or fixed term Employee's prior casual service with the University if the casual service was:

- (a) performed on a regular and systematic basis;
- (b) for a minimum period of 12 months without a break of more than 16 weeks on any single occasion; and
- (c) immediately in conjunction with the period of ongoing or fixed term employment.

Calculating service for long service leave purposes

38.11 In calculating service to establish long service leave entitlements:

- (a) leave without pay will not count as service, except:
 - (i) leave without pay of up to 6 months will count as service after an Employee has completed 10 or more years of continuous service; but
 - (ii) if the period of leave without pay is for more than 6 months, the whole of the period will not count as service; and
- (b) any period of leave without pay for service in the Australian Defence Force Reserves will count as service.

Taking long service leave

38.12 An Employee who is entitled to long service leave may take all or part of the leave at a time of their choosing by giving the University 6 months' written notice of their intention to do so. The University may agree to a shorter period of notice.

38.13 If an Employee who is eligible for paid sick leave produces a satisfactory medical certificate that they were ill or injured for 1 week or more whilst on long service leave, the University will:

- (a) re-credit the Employee with an equivalent period of long service leave, provided that re-credit will not be granted to an Employee on long service leave immediately prior to retirement, resignation or termination of service; and
- (b) deduct an equivalent amount of sick leave.

Direction to take long service leave

38.14 The University may direct a full-time Employee with more than 4.5 months of accrued long service leave to take up to 3 months of leave at a time convenient to the University, provided that:

- (a) the University must give the Employee at least 12 months' written notice of the date on which the leave must start;
- (b) an Employee cannot be required to take long service leave within 24 months of the Employee's intended date of retirement;
- (c) the minimum period of leave the University can require an Employee to take is 6 weeks;
- (d) the University cannot require an Employee to take any further long service leave for 2 years after taking leave under this subclause; and

- 49.9 An Employee may apply for leave without pay to undertake a position (whether as an employee or a volunteer) with an external organisation for a period of up to 12 months if:
- (a) the Employee has received an offer from the external organisation;
 - (b) the position represents a professional development opportunity for the Employee; and
 - (c) the position is related to the Employee's role at the University.

If an Employee takes leave without pay for this reason, the period of leave will not break the Employee's Continuous Service provided that the Employee returns to their employment with the University for a period of at least 12 months following conclusion of the leave.

- 49.10 An Employee must notify the University of any change in the circumstances for which leave without pay was granted, in which case the University may require the Employee to return to work by providing 4 weeks' written notice. The Employee will not, however, have an automatic right to return to work prior to the end of the agreed period of leave.
- 49.11 Subject to subclause 49.9, except for leave without pay for service with the Australian Defence Force Reserves:
- (a) leave without pay of more than 5 days does not count as service in calculating the length of an incremental period; and
 - (b) leave without pay of more than 5 days in any period of 12 months does not count as service for annual leave or sick leave entitlements.

50. SUPPORT FOR ORGAN DONORS

- 50.1 An Employee must notify their Supervisor as soon as possible of their intention to donate a kidney or partial liver and provide supporting medical documentation from their medical practitioner.
- 50.2 Where a medical practitioner confirms that the Employee is able to proceed with the donation surgery, the University will:
- (a) regard the Employee as being on authorised absence from duty during the period required to undergo and recover from surgery, for a period of up to 6 weeks; and
 - (b) make payments to the Employee equal to the difference between any payments received by the University from the Federal Government (under the Federal Government's Living Organ Donor Scheme) and the Employee's Base Salary, for a period of up to 6 weeks.

51. GENDER AFFIRMATION LEAVE

- 51.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.

Entitlement

- 51.2 A full-time Employee is entitled to up to 20 days of paid gender affirmation leave per annum for the purposes of taking steps to affirm their gender. The gender affirmation process may include:

- (a) social affirmation (for example, changing the Employee's pronouns and/or name);
- (b) medical affirmation (for example, surgery and/or hormone therapy, attendance at medical and/or counselling appointments, and rest and recovery from medical procedures); and/or
- (c) legal affirmation (for example, legally changing the Employee's name and/or gender marker on personal identification documents such as the Employee's passport, birth certificate, driver licence, and banking documentation).

51.3 A part-time Employee is entitled to paid gender affirmation leave on a pro rata basis.

51.4 Unused gender affirmation leave does not accrue from year to year.

51.5 The University will protect the privacy and maintain confidentiality of information given by an Employee under this clause.

Taking gender affirmation leave

51.6 An Employee may take gender affirmation leave in one block or in lesser periods as required.

51.7 If an Employee has exhausted their paid gender affirmation leave entitlement and they require additional leave to complete social or legal affirmation processes, they may use their accrued annual or long service leave, or a period of leave without pay as agreed with their Supervisor.

51.8 If an Employee has exhausted their paid gender affirmation leave entitlement and they require additional leave to complete medical affirmation, they may take paid sick leave or sick leave without pay in accordance with clause 41: Sick Leave to the extent of the entitlement available at the time the leave is required.

51.9 Periods of paid gender affirmation leave will count as service for all purposes.

Notice and evidence requirements for gender affirmation leave

51.10 An Employee must give notice to the University of the Employee's intention to take gender affirmation leave as soon as practicable. Such notice must:

- (a) advise the University of the period of leave proposed to be taken; and
- (b) be accompanied by evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is being taken for gender affirmation purposes. Such evidence may include a medical certificate or letter from the Employee's Registered Health Practitioner or statutory declaration by the Employee.

51.11 Any application for leave without pay or sick leave without pay pursuant to subclauses 51.8 or 51.9 must also be accompanied by the evidence referred to in subclause 51.11 (b).

52. PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

52.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.

52.2 Employees are entitled to the following paid Public Holidays:

New Year's Day

Australia Day

Good Friday

Easter Saturday

Easter Sunday	Easter Monday
Anzac Day	Queen's Birthday (or equivalent)
Labour Day	Christmas Day
Boxing Day	A day between Christmas Day and New Year's Day in lieu of the Bank Holiday
Any other holidays declared or prescribed by, or under, a law of a State or Territory in which this Agreement operates.

- 52.3 If a Public Holiday occurs on an Employee's rostered day off and the Employee does not work on that day, they will be entitled to an additional day's leave to be taken at a time agreed with their Supervisor. Alternatively, the University may pay the Employee an additional day's pay at their Base Rate of Pay.

PART J – MANAGING CHANGE

53. JOB SECURITY

- 53.1 Job security is important for the University to function effectively and achieve its strategic goals.
- 53.2 The University recognises the value of attracting, developing, and retaining high quality staff on merit, and on an ongoing basis. It is not the University's intention to use casual employment to fill positions that could otherwise reasonably be filled on an ongoing or fixed term basis.
- 53.3 Over the nominal term of this Agreement, the University will seek to:
- (a) minimise retrenchments where possible; and
 - (b) not increase casual employment at the expense of ongoing employment.

54. ORGANISATIONAL CHANGE

- 54.1 During the nominal term of this Agreement and subject to any exceptional circumstances that may arise (including substantial adverse changes in Government funding or major negative economic disruption), an Employee will not be subject to more than one-organisational change process that may result in the termination of their employment on the ground of redundancy. This limitation will not apply to any form of voluntary separation, including calls for expressions of interest in voluntary redundancy.

Definitions

- 54.2 For the purposes of this clause:
- (a) consultation means:
 - (i) the sharing of relevant information, including the nature of the proposed change and its impact on directly affected Employees, with directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives;
 - (ii) directly affected Employees, the Unions and any appointed Representatives being given the opportunity to express their views and contribute in a timely fashion; and

- (iii) the views of directly affected Employees, the Unions and any appointed Representatives being valued and taken into account by the University;
- (b) Employees are directly affected if proposed organisational change is likely to have a significant impact on their work practices, working conditions, job security, and/or employment prospects;
- (c) minor change is organisational change that does not fall within the definition of significant organisational change;
- (d) outsourcing means replacing or replicating the work specifically and directly performed by an Employee at the time outsourcing is proposed with a contract for service or work by an organisation (including a controlled entity) or someone who is not an Employee; and
- (e) significant organisational change may include the following outcomes:
 - (i) termination of employment (including redundancy);
 - (ii) changes to the composition or size of the workforce;
 - (iii) closure of a University work unit(s);
 - (iv) introduction of significant technological change;
 - (v) changes to course or unit offerings which change the staffing profile required to teach and/or support the delivery of the course or unit or will significantly impact upon the workload of Employees;
 - (vi) significant changes to work practices, core duties and times and/or hours of operation of directly affected Employees' work units;
 - (vii) relocating directly affected Employees to another campus; and/or
 - (viii) a significant reduction in employment or significant adverse impact on employment opportunities (including redeployment).

Representation

- 54.3 A directly affected Employee may choose to seek the advice, representation and support of their Union during consultation, or appoint a Representative to assist them for the purposes of this clause.

Consultation on proposed organisational change

- 54.4 Effective organisational change requires genuine consultation. To achieve this, the University will consult with all Employees who may be directly affected by proposed significant organisational change, including Employees on leave or secondment.
- 54.5 The process of academic planning, including decisions on the academic offerings of the University, do not require consultation under this clause, unless a decision made as part of academic planning leads to a proposal for significant organisational change.

Minor change

- 54.6 Minor change will be addressed at the local level through discussion with directly affected Employees and, if appropriate, the work unit.
- 54.7 In cases of proposed minor change, the formal change process will not apply if:
- (a) all directly affected Employees in the relevant work unit have been involved in discussion and consideration of the change; and
 - (b) all of those Employees agree with the proposed minor change.
- 54.8 If directly affected Employees advise the University, either directly or through their Union or appointed Representative that they do not agree with the proposed minor change, the formal change process will apply.

Discussions before a change proposal is developed

- 54.9 The University will discuss with directly affected Employees issues that might lead to change before developing a change proposal. Such discussions may include the preparation of an issues paper, which would be made available to directly affected Employees of the work unit prior to the development and release of a formal change proposal.

Outsourcing

- 54.10 A proposal for outsourcing will not be justified primarily on the basis that an outside service provider has lower rates of pay than the University.
- 54.11 If outsourcing is proposed, the University will make an issues paper available to directly affected Employees prior to the release of a formal change proposal that includes the provision of evidence to support the case for outsourcing.
- 54.12 The University will also report to the Implementation Committee about any outsourcing proposal and will forward any organisational change proposal involving outsourcing to the Implementation Committee at the time the proposal is released to Employees.

Developing a change proposal

- 54.13 The University will develop a written change proposal covering the following issues if significant organisational change is proposed:
- (a) type and nature of the proposed change;
 - (b) reason(s) for the proposed change, including any financial reason(s);
 - (c) current staffing profile and/or current location;
 - (d) proposed staffing profile and location changes;
 - (e) impact on Employees and their work in the affected work unit, including:
 - (i) any increases to workloads; and
 - (ii) proposals to mitigate the effect of any increases to workloads, including the redistribution of any remaining work from a position(s) proposed to be disestablished;
 - (f) suggestions for mitigating any negative consequences for directly affected Employees;

- (g) evidence to support any case for outsourcing;
- (h) any impact on Employees in another work unit;
- (i) any health and safety implications;
- (j) any equity implications;
- (k) financial impact;
- (l) a proposed implementation plan, including indicative timeframes and any transitional arrangements; and
- (m) details of the post-restructure review to be conducted under subclause 54.35, or where the University has determined that such a review would not be appropriate, the reasons for that determination.

The consultation process

- 54.14 A change proposal will be sent to all directly affected Employees, the Unions and any appointed Representatives, including any Employees on leave or secondment, allowing at least 10 working days for feedback.
- 54.15 As soon as practicable after the release of a change proposal, the University will consult with all directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives. Where practicable, consultation will take the form of face-to-face meetings.
- 54.16 During the consultation process, an Employee whose position is proposed to be discontinued may:
- (a) suggest measures to mitigate any negative consequences for the Employee if the change proposal is approved for implementation; or
 - (b) make a direct submission to the Employment Executive Member about the proposed discontinuation of their position. The Employment Executive Member will consider the Employee's submission and advise the Employee of their determination within 7 days.
- 54.17 Following consultation and taking into account feedback from directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives, the University will finalise the change proposal.
- 54.18 Where any work remaining from a disestablished position(s) cannot be accommodated within the available workload(s) of remaining ongoing and fixed term Employees, the position(s) will not be disestablished.

Distribution of final change plan

- 54.19 The University will distribute the approved final change plan, together with a Management Response document, to all directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives before implementing the plan.
- 54.20 The final change plan will also:
- (a) include responses to all concerns and/or issues raised by Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives; and
 - (b) confirm the manner in which any work remaining from a disestablished position(s) will be redistributed, provided that any such work must be accommodated within the ordinary hours of remaining ongoing and fixed term Employees without the need for continuing overtime or time in lieu.

Implementation of final change plan

- 54.21 The University will consult with directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives about the process of implementing the change plan, including any measures that could be taken to mitigate any negative consequences for directly affected Employees.
- 54.22 The University will use retrenchments as a last resort. When a retrenchment occurs, the University will make available career transition services to an agreed service level upon request by an affected ongoing Employee.

Relocation

- 54.23 If organisational change results in an ongoing or fixed term Employee being relocated to a different campus and this would result in an unreasonable increase in the Employee's travel time or costs, or unreasonably impact on the Employee's family or carer's responsibilities, the University will, if practicable, consider the following relocation options:
- (a) voluntary swap with another Employee in a similar position at a different location;
 - (b) flexible work practices, such as working at the new location for an agreed number of days per week;
 - (c) working in the new location for a trial period;
 - (d) working remotely for a trial period;
 - (e) a combination of working in the new location and remotely for a trial period; or
 - (f) any other options suggested by the Employee, their Union or Representative, and the University.
- 54.24 Relocation options, other than a voluntary position swap, will be reviewed after 12 weeks and either confirmed or, if the option proves unworkable or the relocation remains unreasonable for the Employee, the Employee will then become displaced and clause 55: Redeployment and Redundancy will apply.

Restructuring

- 54.25 If a work unit is restructured, and:
- (a) there are the same or fewer directly affected ongoing Employees as there are substantially the same positions in the new structure; and
 - (b) a position that is substantially the same as that previously held by a directly affected Employee exists in the new structure;
- that Employee will be entitled to continue their employment with the University in that position.
- 54.26 If a work unit is restructured and there are more directly affected ongoing Employees than there are substantially the same positions in the new structure, the University may call for expressions of interest in voluntary redundancy from directly affected ongoing Employees.
- 54.27 Within 20 working days of receiving an expression of interest in voluntary redundancy from an Employee, the University will advise the Employee in writing as to whether the Employee will be offered voluntary redundancy. If redundancy is offered to an Employee, then the redundancy provisions prescribed by clause 55: Redeployment and Redundancy will apply.

54.28 If after calling for expressions of interest in voluntary redundancy, there remain more directly affected ongoing Employees than there are substantially the same positions in the new structure, the University will place the remaining affected Employees into the positions using a merit-based selection process.

54.29 A directly affected ongoing Employee who is not placed in the new structure will become an eligible Employee.

54.30 The University may place an eligible Employee in a new or vacant position in the new structure if:

- (a) the position is suitable; and
- (b) the eligible Employee agrees to the placement, such agreement will not be unreasonably withheld.

54.31 A suitable position is one for which the eligible Employee possesses the necessary essential skills, qualifications and/or experience, or is likely to attain them following a reasonable period of retraining, and which is equivalent in Salary to the eligible Employee's previous position. The process of placement will be supported by a centrally administered capability assessment process.

54.32 If an eligible Employee agrees, the University may place them in a new or vacant position within the new structure at a lower level, in which case the Employee's Salary will be maintained for all purposes at the level of their previous position as follows:

- (a) for 24 months, if the Employee agrees to be placed 1 level lower; or
- (b) for 12 months, if the Employee agrees to be placed more than 1 level lower;

after which it will be reduced to the maximum Salary step of the new or vacant position.

54.33 If there are 2 or more eligible Employees being considered for placement in a suitable new or vacant position in the new structure, placement will be determined using a merit-based selection process.

54.34 An eligible Employee who is not placed will become a displaced employee and clause 55: Redeployment and Redundancy will apply.

Post-restructure review

54.35 Within 12 months of the final change plan being released, the University will conduct a review of the implemented change as against the rationale and expected outcomes detailed in the change plan, including any persistent increase to workloads that affected Employees believe is a result of the change. As part of the review, the University will:

- (a) provide Employees in the relevant work unit (whether directly affected by the implemented change or otherwise), the Unions, and any appointed Representatives with an opportunity to comment on any persistent increase to workloads that affected Employees believe is a result of the change, including any increase resulting from the redistribution of work previously undertaken by a disestablished position(s);
- (b) assess whether, as a result of the change, the work of a disestablished position(s) has been accommodated within the available workloads of remaining ongoing and fixed term Employees; and

- (c) where work remaining from a disestablished position(s) has not been successfully accommodated within the available workloads of remaining ongoing and fixed term Employees, the University will outline a proposal to remedy work intensification, including the creation of new position(s).

54.36 The University will:

- (a) provide a copy of the draft post-restructure review report to directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives for their comment; and
- (b) incorporate any feedback received from directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives into the final report.

55. REDEPLOYMENT AND REDUNDANCY

55.1 This clause does not apply to casual or fixed term Employees.

Displaced Employees

55.2 Organisational change may result in an ongoing Employee being displaced because the University no longer requires the Employee's job to be performed by anyone due to its permanent abolition, or permanent abolition of University operations (such as the discontinuation of a teaching program or closure of a campus), in which case the procedures set out in this clause will apply.

55.3 The University will:

- (a) advise an Employee in writing if they are displaced;
- (b) identify the grounds on which the University determined the Employee's job is no longer required to be performed by anyone;
- (c) discuss with a displaced Employee their options regarding redeployment or redundancy; and
- (d) pro-actively case manage and consult with the displaced Employee.

55.4 The University will provide displaced Employees with calculations of their estimated redundancy entitlements including taxation, and annual and long service leave entitlements.

Support for displaced Employees

55.5 The University will provide the following support to displaced Employees:

- (a) professional assistance in applying for positions, interview techniques and career planning;
- (b) professional counselling; and/or
- (c) job search and career transition management services, which may include relevant and specifically targeted short-term training programs.

Consideration period

55.6 The University will give a displaced Employee 10 working days to:

- (a) elect in writing to be considered for redeployment; or
- (b) express an interest in voluntary redundancy.

- 55.7 If a displaced Employee does not make an election within the required timeframe, and there are no positions into which the Employee could be redeployed, the University will immediately commence the redeployment period in relation to the Employee in accordance with subclause 55.11.
- 55.8 If an Employee is on secondment at the time their substantive position is discontinued, and:
- (a) the secondment has more than 26 weeks remaining, the Employee will be required to make an election under subclause 55.7 at that time. The Employee may elect:
 - (i) redundancy, which will then take effect in accordance with subclause 55.23; or
 - (ii) redeployment, in which case the redeployment period will commence from the date of election in accordance with subclause 55.11; or
 - (b) the secondment has less than 26 weeks remaining, the requirement to make an election under subclause 55.7 will be deferred until the conclusion of the secondment (excluding any extensions).

Redeployment

- 55.9 The University acknowledges that redeployment assists the University to retain the skills, knowledge, and experience of Employees whose employment with the University might otherwise cease on the ground of redundancy.
- 55.10 If a displaced Employee elects redeployment, their election must include a curriculum vitae to assist in the redeployment process.
- 55.11 A displaced Employee who has elected to be considered for redeployment will be entitled to the following redeployment period, provided that the University may agree to a longer or shorter redeployment period if requested by the Employee:

	Category of Employee	Redeployment period
(a)	level 6 and below	20 weeks
(b)	an Employee at level 7 and above displaced through a decision by the University to outsource the Employee's work, and who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) is aged 45 years or over; or (ii) has more than 15 years of Continuous Service with the University 	16 weeks (may elect to be paid in lieu of 4 weeks)
(c)	all other Employees	12 weeks

- 55.12 During the redeployment period, a displaced Employee:
- (a) may continue to work in their own work unit, and/or work temporarily in another work unit, and/or undertake training; and
 - (b) will be given reasonable paid time off work to attend job interviews or undertake other job search activities.

55.13 The redeployment process will be proactively managed by the relevant Change Manager in conjunction with the Senior HR Partner responsible for the displaced Employee's work unit (redemption team).

55.14 If a displaced Employee elects redeployment:

- (a) the redeployment team will proactively identify suitable vacant positions for redeployment based on the Employee's skills, qualifications, experience, and any reasonable retraining that may be provided to the Employee to enable them to perform the duties of a vacant position;
- (b) the Employee must agree to undertake any reasonable retraining that may be required by the University to enable the Employee to be redeployed to a suitable vacant position;
- (c) the University will keep a register of displaced Employees and the redeployment team will examine all vacant positions before advertising to determine whether there is a displaced Employee suitable for redeployment. A position will only be advertised (either internally or externally) if, in the opinion of the redeployment team, there is no displaced Employee who could be redeployed into the position, including with reasonable retraining; and
- (d) if a suitable vacant position is available, the Employee will be offered appointment to the position, provided that if more than one displaced Employee is being considered for a position, the redeployment team will:
 - (i) decide which Employee best meets the position requirements based on their skills, qualifications, and experience; and
 - (ii) provide the unsuccessful Employee(s) with written reasons as to why they were not offered appointment to the position.

55.15 A displaced Employee seeking redeployment may also seek retraining to enable them to be redeployed to a specified vacant position within the University.

55.16 The University is committed to providing reasonable time and resources for retraining.

Offers of redeployment

55.17 A displaced Employee who elects redeployment must not refuse a reasonable offer of redeployment or training, however this does not mean the Employee will be required to accept redeployment to a position at a lower salary level or at reduced hours.

55.18 If a displaced Employee accepts redeployment to a position at a lower level, the Employee's Salary will be maintained for all purposes at the level of their previous position as follows:

- (a) for 24 months, if the Employee accepts redeployment to a position that is 1 level lower than their previous position;
- (b) for 12 months, if the Employee accepts redeployment to a position that is more than 1 level lower than their previous position;

after which it will be reduced to the maximum Salary step of the position into which the Employee has accepted redeployment.

55.19 If the University is unable to redeploy a displaced Employee within the redeployment period, the Employee's position will be made redundant, and they will be entitled to the payment prescribed by subclause 55.22.

Calculating Continuous Service

55.20 For the purposes of calculating an Employee's redundancy or retrenchment entitlements under this clause, where an Employee has a combination of full-time and part-time service, the Employee's part-time service will be converted to the full-time equivalent and payment made at the Employee's full-time Base Rate of Pay.

Redundancy

55.21 If a displaced Employee elects redundancy, they should seek independent advice on taxation and superannuation.

55.22 A displaced Employee who elects redundancy will be entitled to:

- (a) a notice payment equal to 20 weeks at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay; and
- (b) payment equal to 3 weeks at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay for each completed year of Continuous Service, up to a maximum of 60 weeks; or
- (c) where the Employee is displaced as a result of outsourcing, payment equal to 4 weeks at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay for each completed year of Continuous Service, up to a maximum of 60 weeks.

55.23 A displaced Employee who elects redundancy will cease to be employed 10 working days after advising the University of their election, or at another date agreed between the Employee and the University.

Retrenchment

55.24 A displaced Employee who has elected redeployment will not be retrenched if there is a body of work being performed by a casual Employee(s) that could be reallocated to the displaced Employee as an ongoing full-time or part-time workload, provided that the displaced Employee:

- (a) must be suitably qualified and have the capacity to perform the work; and/or
- (b) could be retrained within a reasonable period of time to perform the work.

55.25 If at the end of the redeployment period a displaced Employee is not redeployed, the Employee will be retrenched and entitled to the following payment:

	Category of Employee	Payment
(a)	level 6 and below	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 20 weeks, minus up to 12 weeks' redeployment period at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay; and • payment equal to 3 weeks at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay for each completed year of Continuous Service, up to a maximum of 60 weeks;

	Category of Employee	Payment
(b)	an Employee at level 7 and above displaced through a decision by the University to outsource the Employee's work, and who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) is aged 45 years or over; or (ii) has more than 15 years of Continuous Service with the University 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 20 weeks, minus the length of the redeployment period at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay; and • payment equal to 3 weeks at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay for each completed year of Continuous Service, up to a maximum of 60 weeks;
(c)	all other Employees	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 20 weeks, minus the length of the redeployment period at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay; and • payment equal to 3 weeks at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay for each completed year of Continuous Service, up to a maximum of 60 weeks.

Funding for retraining, redeployment, and redundancies

55.26 Retraining, redeployment, redundancy, and retrenchment will be funded from a central University fund or provisioning provided for by the relevant Division, work unit, or Centre budget.

PART K – ILL HEALTH OR INJURY

56. MANAGING ILL HEALTH OR INJURY

Application

56.1 This clause does not apply to:

- (a) casual Employees;
- (b) an Employee who is receiving an ill-health retirement or temporary disability benefit from their superannuation fund;
- (c) an Employee who is receiving workers compensation benefits, unless the Employee has been assessed by the University's workers compensation insurer as being permanently unfit to return to work at the University in any capacity; or
- (d) an Employee who is on paid sick leave.

56.2 The University is committed to retaining its Employees and will make reasonable adjustments to accommodate an Employee's illness or injury to assist them to perform the inherent requirements of their role. Where reasonable adjustments cannot be made, or are not successful, the University may act upon the process in this clause.

56.3 This clause does not prevent an Employee from applying to their superannuation fund for ill-health retirement or a temporary disability benefit. If an Employee makes such an application and it is supported by the University, the process prescribed by this clause will be placed on hold pending the outcome of the application.

- 56.4 An Employee who is required to undergo the process prescribed by this clause may be placed on sick leave or elect to use some other form of accrued leave pending conclusion of the process.
- 56.5 This clause does not prevent the University from taking any action it considers necessary to meet its obligations under applicable work health and safety legislation.
- 56.6 The University will maintain confidentiality regarding the process prescribed by this clause.

Medical examination

- 56.7 Subject to subclause 56.2, the University may require an Employee to undergo a medical examination by an independent medical practitioner or specialist nominated by the University, and at the University's expense, if the Chief People Officer (or their nominee) reasonably considers that:
- (a) the Employee's ability to perform or resume their duties is in doubt because of the Employee's illness or injury, and it is unclear whether the Employee will be able to perform or resume those duties within a reasonable period of time; or
 - (b) the health, safety, or welfare of the Employee and/or other Employees and/or students may be at risk of being adversely affected by the Employee's illness or injury.
- 56.8 The University will provide the Employee with at least 2 weeks' written notice of the requirement to undergo a medical examination, unless there is concern regarding imminent harm to the Employee or others, in which case the Employee will be required to attend the examination as soon as reasonably practicable. The Employee may also agree to a shorter notice period.
- 56.9 The University will provide the Employee with a copy of the referral document sent to the medical practitioner or specialist. The Employee may also provide medical information to the practitioner or specialist prior to the medical examination.

Medical Report

- 56.10 Following the medical examination, the medical practitioner or specialist will provide a written report to the University (Medical Report) advising:
- (a) whether the Employee is able to perform their duties, or is likely to be able to resume the duties within 12 months; and
 - (b) if applicable, whether the Employee requires or will require any adjustments to perform or resume their duties, and the nature of any such adjustments; and/or
 - (c) if applicable, whether the Employee presents a risk of the health, safety, or welfare of the Employee and/or other Employees and/or students and, if so, whether the risk is likely to persist for more than 12 months.
- 56.11 The University will provide a copy of the Medical Report to the Employee.
- 56.12 If the Medical Report provides that the Employee:
- (a) is fit to perform their duties, or will be fit to resume the duties within 12 months; and/or
 - (b) does not present a risk to the health, safety, or welfare of the Employee and/or other Employees and/or students, or will no longer present such a risk within 12 months;

the University will use the report, together with any medical report from the Employee's treating specialist, as the basis on which to plan and manage the Employee's return to work, including any reasonable adjustments that may be made.

56.13 If the Medical Report provides that the Employee:

- (a) is not fit to perform the Employee's duties, and is unlikely to be fit to resume the duties within 12 months; or
- (b) presents a risk to the health, safety, or welfare of the Employee and/or other Employees and/or students, and is likely to do so for a period of more than 12 months;

the University may notify the Employee that it intends to terminate their employment. If the Employee is so advised, they will have 5 working days to request a second medical examination by an alternative medical practitioner or specialist.

56.14 If the Employee:

- (a) elects to not attend a second medical examination; or
- (b) fails to make an election within the required timeframe;

the University will terminate their employment upon expiration of the 5 working-day period, in which case the Employee will receive payment in lieu of the notice period contained in the Employee's contract of employment or payment in lieu of 6 months' notice, whichever is greater.

Second medical examination

56.15 If the Employee elects to attend a second medical examination, the University will provide the Employee with the names of 2 independent medical practitioners or specialists from which to choose. The University will bear the cost of the examination and provide the Employee with at least 1 weeks' written notice to attend the examination.

56.18 The University will provide a copy of the Second Medical Report to the Employee.

56.19 If the Second Medical Report:

- (b) provides that the Employee is fit to perform or resume the Employee's duties, or is likely to be able to perform or resume their duties within 12 months of the second medical examination; or
- (c) provides that the Employee does not present a risk to the health, safety or welfare of the Employee and/or other Employees and/or students, or will no longer present such a risk within 12 months of the second medical examination;

the University will refer to the Second Medical Report together with any medical report from the Employee's treating specialist as the basis on which to plan and manage the Employee's return to work.

56.20 If the Second Medical Report:

- (a) confirms the findings of the Medical Report; or
- (b) provides that the Employee (whether on the grounds identified in the Medical Report or otherwise):
 - (i) is not fit to perform or resume the Employee's duties and is unlikely to be able to perform or resume their duties 12 months of the second medical examination; or
 - (ii) presents a risk to the health, safety or welfare of the Employee and/or other Employees and/or students and is likely to do so for a period of 12 months or more;

the University may provide the Employee with written notice of termination of the Employee's employment effective immediately, in which case the Employee will receive payment in lieu of the notice period contained in the Employee's contract of employment or payment in lieu of 6 months' notice, whichever is greater.

Refusal or failure to attend medical examination

56.21 If an Employee refuses or fails without reasonable cause to attend a medical examination under this clause, the Employee will be given 5 working days to show cause as to why their employment should not be terminated.

56.22 If the Employee fails to show reasonable cause, the University may terminate their employment effective immediately with payment in lieu of 4 weeks' notice (which will be increased to 5 weeks if, at the time notice of termination is given, the Employee is aged over 45 years and has completed 2 years of Continuous Service).

56.23 An Employee's refusal or failure to attend a medical examination under this clause will not constitute Misconduct or Serious Misconduct.

Option to resign

56.24 The University may provide the Employee with an option to resign prior to effecting termination of employment under this clause. Any resignation must take effect within 4 weeks of the University giving notice of termination.

PART L – PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

57. UNSATISFACTORY PERFORMANCE

Application

57.1 This clause does not apply to:

- (a) casual Employees; or
- (b) Employees serving a probationary period.

57.2 This clause will apply to any unsatisfactory performance process that is initiated on or after the date of commencement of this Agreement. If an Employee is subject to an unsatisfactory performance process under clause 51 of the Western Sydney University Professional Staff Agreement 2017 at the date of commencement of this Agreement, that process will continue to apply.

General

- 57.3 Unsatisfactory performance occurs when an Employee has, over a reasonable period of time, failed to meet the standard of performance expected for the Employee's position having regard to the Employee's level and duties, and any mitigating factors.
- 57.4 If a matter involving unsatisfactory performance has been dealt with under clause 58: Misconduct or Serious Misconduct, this clause will not apply.
- 57.5 An Employee may choose to be accompanied by a support person or Representative, including an official of the Union, at any stage of a process prescribed by this clause.
- 57.6 A Supervisor must keep a written record of all meetings held with an Employee regarding the Employee's unsatisfactory performance.
- 57.7 Disciplinary action should be used as a last resort.

Counselling and guidance

- 57.8 If an Employee's Supervisor has concerns about the Employee's performance, the Supervisor will meet with the Employee to discuss:
 - (a) the Supervisor's concerns regarding the Employee's performance;
 - (b) the nature of the improvement required (this may include directing the Employee to undertake appropriate training);
 - (c) the time within which reasonable improvement is expected; and
 - (d) the Employee's response, if any, to the Supervisor's concerns (including any mitigating factors).
- 57.9 When holding counselling and guidance discussions under subclause 57.8, the Supervisor must:
 - (a) advise the Employee that the discussions are being held under this clause;
 - (b) provide the Employee with a copy of this clause and explain the consequences of continued unsatisfactory performance; and
 - (c) keep a written record of any discussions and provide a copy to the Employee.

Performance Improvement Plan

- 57.10 If the Employee's performance remains unsatisfactory after counselling and guidance, the Employee's Supervisor may put formal measures in place to assist the Employee to improve their performance.
- 57.11 The Supervisor and the Employee will agree upon a written Performance Improvement Plan (PIP), which sets out:
 - (a) details of previous discussions between the Supervisor and the Employee regarding the Employee's unsatisfactory performance;
 - (b) the nature of the Employee's unsatisfactory performance;

- (c) the specific areas that require improvement;
- (d) the specific performance standard that is expected and how improvement will be measured;
- (e) any support to be provided to assist the Employee to reach the specific performance standard;
- (f) the length of the review period, which will provide a reasonable opportunity for the specific performance standard to be met;
- (g) the dates on which the Employee and the Supervisor will meet to discuss the PIP; and
- (h) the consequences of continued unsatisfactory performance.

57.12 If the Employee disagrees with the content of the PIP, they may request that the head of the Employee's work unit determine whether the specific performance standard expected is reasonable. If there is a conflict of interest, the matter may be referred to the Chief People Officer (or their nominee).

57.13 If the Employee refuses to participate in the PIP process, the Supervisor may issue a lawful and reasonable direction to the Employee to participate in the process.

Review of Performance Improvement Plan

57.14 If, after the review period identified in the PIP, the Supervisor is of the view that:

- (a) the Employee's performance has satisfactorily improved, the Supervisor will advise the Employee in writing and the process will conclude; or
- (b) the Employee has exhibited a reasonable level of improvement towards reaching the specific performance standards identified in the PIP, the Supervisor may extend the review period by a maximum of 8 weeks; or
- (c) the Employee has not reached the specific performance standards identified in the PIP, the Supervisor will refer the matter to the nominated Employment Executive Member.

Referral to Employment Executive Member

57.15 If the Supervisor makes a referral under subclause 57.14(c), they must provide a written report to the Employment Executive Member setting out the reasons for the referral, including all documentation relating to the Employee's unsatisfactory performance.

57.16 Following a review of the matter, the Employment Executive Member may:

- (a) refer the matter back to the Supervisor to take action to remedy any procedural deficiency identified by the Employment Executive Member;
- (b) extend the review period identified in the PIP, in which case the matter will be referred back to the Employee's Supervisor;
- (c) determine that disciplinary action should be imposed, which may include, but is not limited to, demotion or the removal of duties and/or responsibilities for which the Employee is paid an allowance;
- (d) determine that no further action should be taken, in which case the process will conclude; or

- (e) determine that a recommendation should be made to the Vice-Chancellor and President that the Employee's employment be terminated for unsatisfactory performance.

57.17 If the Employment Executive Member determines that a recommendation under subclause 57.16(d) should be made, the Member will:

- (a) notify the Employee accordingly in writing; and
- (b) advise the Employee that they may request a review of the unsatisfactory performance process by an Unsatisfactory Performance Review Committee (Review Committee).

57.18 If the Employee:

- (a) does not request that the matter be referred to a Review Committee, the Employment Executive Member will proceed with making the recommendation to the Vice-Chancellor and President under subclause 57.17(d); or
- (b) requests that the matter be referred to a Review Committee, the Employment Executive Member will refer the matter accordingly.

Determination by Vice-Chancellor and President where no referral to Review Committee

57.19 If the Employment Executive Member proceeds with referring their recommendation to the Vice-Chancellor and President in accordance with subclause 57.18(a), the Vice-Chancellor and President may determine that:

- (a) an alternative form of disciplinary action should be imposed. This may include, but is not limited to, the removal of duties and/or responsibilities for which the Employee is paid an allowance, or demotion; or
- (b) the Employee's employment be terminated for unsatisfactory performance, in which case the Employee will be give 5 working days to show cause as to why termination should not occur.

57.20 The Vice-Chancellor and President will consider the Employee's response (if any) to the show cause letter and either:

- (a) impose disciplinary action; or
- (b) terminate the Employee's employment for unsatisfactory performance by providing the notice in accordance with subclause 57.26.

Unsatisfactory Performance Review Committee

57.21 If a matter is referred to a Review Committee in accordance with subclause 57.18(b) the Committee will, where possible, be convened within 15 working days and comprise:

- (a) an Employee nominated by the University;
- (b) an Employee nominated by the staff representatives on the Implementation Committee, selected from a pool of trained Employees created via an expression of interest process conducted by the Implementation Committee; and
- (c) an independent Chair selected by the Vice-Chancellor and President from a pool agreed between the University and the Unions. Chairs will have relevant experience and be independent.

57.22 The Review Committee will provide a written report to the Vice-Chancellor and President regarding whether the unsatisfactory performance process has been followed (Committee Report).

57.23 The Review Committee will:

- (a) allow the Employee and the University the opportunity to be assisted by their respective Representatives;
- (b) provide the Employee with an opportunity to be interviewed;

57.24 The Review Committee will issue the Committee Report as soon as possible following conclusion of its proceedings, and the Employee will be given 5 working days to respond to the report.

57.25 The Committee Report and the Employee's response (if any) will then be provided to the Vice-Chancellor and President for consideration, following which the Vice-Chancellor and President may:

- (a) take no further action, in which case the Employee will be advised accordingly in writing and the advice may, with the Employee's agreement, be published in an appropriate manner; or
- (b) take action to remedy any procedural deficiency identified in the Committee Report; or
- (c) formally terminate the Employee's employment for unsatisfactory performance.

58.17 Where available evidentiary material consists solely or primarily of records held by the University, the University may appoint an internal investigator from a pool agreed with the Unions to carry out the formal investigation. The University will, in consultation with the Unions through the Implementation Committee, develop written guidelines to assist with determining whether an investigation should be carried out internally or externally having regard to the circumstances of the case.

58.18 The University will advise the Employee of its decision to conduct a formal investigation, whether the investigation will be conducted by an internal or external investigator, and of clause 66: Employee Representation, unless the University determines that exceptional circumstances exist, and it is not appropriate for the Employee to be aware of and involved in the investigation.

Allegations

58.24 If the Employment Executive Member determines that further action is warranted, the University will notify the Employee of the allegations against them in writing and in sufficient detail to enable the Employee to understand and respond to the allegations.

58.25 The Employee will be provided with the parts of the Investigation Report on which the University has relied in making the allegations. The University may also redact any material it considers should be omitted from the Investigation Report if exceptional circumstances exist.

Determination

58.32 The Employment Executive Member will consider the Employee's response to the allegations and any Committee Report, and determine what, if any, Disciplinary Action is to be taken.

- (a) examine the facts and information gathered as part of the preliminary assessment; and
- (b) gather and examine any further relevant evidence as required.

59.24 The Research Investigation may be carried out by:

- (a) an investigator; or
- (b) an investigation panel (Panel).

59.25 Any investigator must have expertise in the protocols of the conduct of academic research and/or research management.

- (a) the potential consequences for the Employee;
- (b) the seniority of the Employee; and
- (c) the need to maintain public confidence in research.

59.27 The DVC(REI) will determine the size and composition of the Panel. In selecting Panel members, the DVC(REI) will consider:

- (a) the expertise and skills required of a person appointed as Panel Chair;

In carrying out the Research Investigation, the investigator or Panel may also seek expert advice to assist the investigation if required.

59.30 At the conclusion of the Research Investigation, the investigator or Panel will prepare a draft report and provide the Employee with an opportunity to comment on the report within a reasonable timeframe.

- 59.31 Following receipt of the Employee's comments (if any), the investigator or Panel will finalise the report and provide it to the DVC(REI) for consideration.

Consideration and final determination

- 59.32 The DVC(REI) will consider the Research Investigation report. If the DVC(REI) determines that:

- (a) the Employee has not contravened the Code, the matter will conclude and the DVC(REI) will advise the Employee accordingly in writing; or
- (b) the Employee has contravened the Code, the DVC(REI) will determine what Disciplinary Action is to be imposed and advise the Employee accordingly in writing, provided that:
 - (i) termination of employment is available in cases of Research Misconduct only; and
 - (ii) if the DVC(REI) determines that the Employee's employment should be terminated for Research Misconduct, they will refer the determination to the Vice-Chancellor and President for approval.

- (b) have regard to any matters submitted by the Employee in their response to the show cause letter; and or such greater notice as is prescribed by the Employee's contract of employment. An Employee who is over 45 years of age and has completed at least 2 years of Continuous Service at the time notice is given will receive an additional 1 weeks' notice or payment in lieu.

- 59.35 The University may terminate the employment of an Employee who is found to have engaged in Research Misconduct without notice if it would be unreasonable to require the University to continue employment during the notice period.

No further right of appeal

- 59.36 Where a decision to take action has been made in accordance with this clause, no further appeal can be made within the University. Nothing in this clause will be construed as excluding the jurisdiction of any external court or tribunal which would be competent to deal with this matter.

- (a) advises those circumstances to the Employee in writing at the latest time at which the notice would otherwise be required to be given; and

- (b) gives notice to the Employee at the earliest practicable date thereafter.

If the Chief People Officer (or their nominee) is satisfied with the reason for the Employee's absence, no further action will be taken under this clause and the Employee's absence will be recorded using an approved leave category appropriate to the circumstances.
- 62.5 If the Chief People Officer's (or their nominee's) attempts to contact the Employee are unsuccessful, they will send the Employee an email, text message, and letter via mail advising the Employee that they are on unapproved leave and must contact the University within 10 working days.
- 62.6 If the Employee does not respond to the University within 10 working days, or the Employee's response does not establish a reasonable explanation for their absence, the University will consider the Employee as having abandoned and therefore terminated their employment.
- 62.7 If an Employee's employment terminates under this clause, the date of termination will be the last day on which the Employee attended work or was on approved leave.

Close Supervision	Clear and detailed instructions are provided. Tasks are covered by standard procedures. Deviation from procedures or unfamiliar situations is referred to higher levels. Work is regularly checked.
Routine Supervision	Direction is provided on the tasks to be undertaken with some latitude to rearrange sequences and discriminate between established methods. Guidance on the approach to standard circumstances is provided in procedures, guidance on the approach to non-standard circumstances is provided by a supervisor. Checking is selective rather than constant.
General Direction	Direction is provided on the assignments to be undertaken, with the occupant determining the appropriate use of established methods, tasks and sequences. There is some scope to determine an approach in the absence of established procedures or detailed instructions, but guidance is readily available. Performance is checked by assignment completion.
Broad Direction	Direction is provided in terms of objectives which may require the planning of staff, time and material resources for their completion. Limited detailed guidance will be available and the development or modification of procedures by the employee may be required. Performance will be measured against objectives.
Definition 2	Qualifications within the Australian Qualifications Framework

Year 12	Completion of a Senior Secondary Certificate of Education, usually in Year 12 of secondary school
Trade Certificate	Completion of an apprenticeship, normally of 4 years duration, or equivalent recognition, eg Certificate III.
Post-Trade Certificate	A course of study over and above a trade certificate and less than a Certificate IV.
Certificate III	A course that provides a range of well-developed skills and is comparable to a trade certificate.
Certificate IV	A course that provides greater breadth and depth of skill and knowledge and is comparable to a 2-year part time post-Year 12 or Post-Trade Certificate course.
Diploma	A course at a higher education or vocational educational and training institution, typically equivalent to 2 years full time post-Year 12 study.
Advanced Diploma	A course at a higher education or vocational educational and training institution, typically equivalent to 3 years full time post-Year 12 study.

Definition 2	Qualifications within the Australian Qualifications Framework
Degree	A recognised degree from a higher education institution, often completed in 3 or 4 years, and sometimes combined with a 1-year Diploma.
Postgraduate Degree	A recognised postgraduate degree, over and above a degree as defined above.
	Previously recognised qualifications obtained prior to the implementation of the Australian Qualifications Framework continue to be recognised.
Note:	The above definitions also include equivalent recognised overseas qualifications.

DEFINITION 3	CLASSIFICATION DIMENSIONS
Training Level	The type and duration of training which the duties of the classification level typically require for effective performance. Training is the process of acquiring skills and knowledge through formal education, on the job instruction or exposure to procedures.
Occupational Equivalent	Examples of occupations typically falling within each classification level.
Level of Supervision	This dimension covers both the way in which employees are supervised or managed and the role of employees in supervising or managing others.
Task Level	The type, complexity and responsibility of tasks typically performed by employees within each classification level.
Organisational Knowledge	The level of knowledge and awareness of the organisation, its structure and functions that would be expected of employees at each proposed classification level, and the purposes to which that organisational knowledge may be put.
Judgement, Independence and Problem Solving	Judgement is the ability to make sound decisions, recognising the consequences of decisions taken or actions performed. Independence is the extent to which an employee is able (or allowed) to work effectively without supervision or direction. Problem solving is the process of defining or selecting the appropriate course of action where alternative courses of actions are available.
