

University of Western Sydney

Bringing knowledge to life

Social Justice and Social Change
Research Centre

Launch

The Social Justice and Social Change Research Centre (SJSC) is a newly formed University-supported research centre.

The SJSC's vision is to be a centre of excellence and innovation for applied research on social justice and social change. The SJSC is committed to developing collaborative partnerships with individuals, agencies and institutions for whom social justice is a crucial issue.

S

J

S

C

Research Centre

The Hon E.G. Whitlam,
AC, QC will officially launch
the University of Western Sydney's Social Justice and Social Change Research
Centre at a function on:

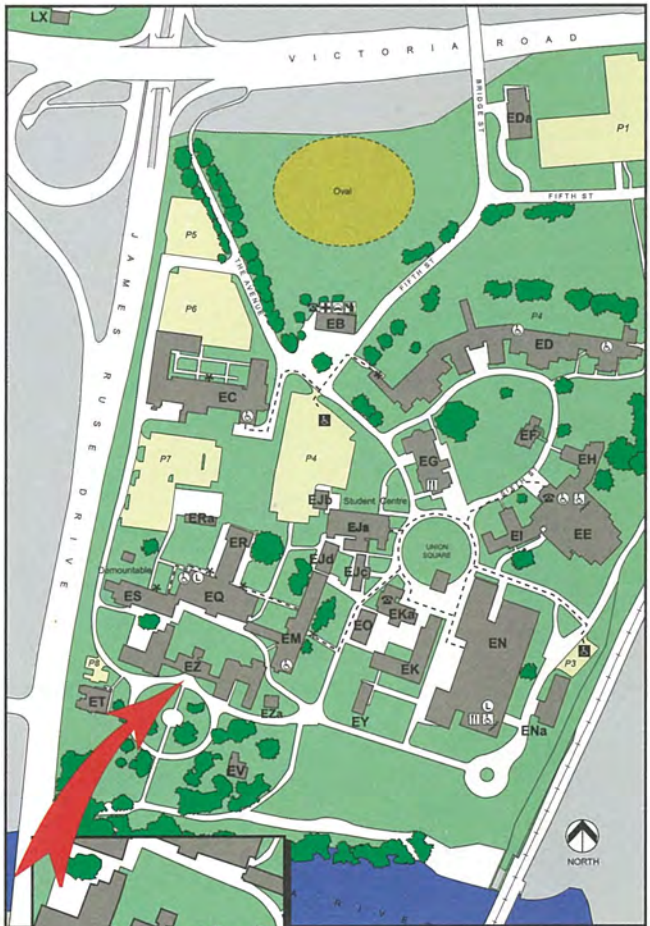

Thursday 6 November 2003
11am - 12.30 pm
Female Orphan School,
UWS Parramatta Campus,
Cnr James Ruse Drive and
Victoria Road, Rydalmere

Professor Janice Reid AO, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Western Sydney cordially invites you to attend the launch.

RSVP by 30 October 2003
Jason White
ja.white@uws.edu.au
tel 9772 6482

Light refreshments will be served

Female Orphan School (EZ),
 UWS Parramatta Campus,
 Cnr James Ruse Drive and
 Victoria Road, Rydalmere